

Question no: 03

The Worst Disease Today
In The World Is Corruption
↓
Today

17/10/21

Outline::

① Thesis statement::

Although there are other vices present to weaken the governing apparatus, yet the corruption is reflects highest ^{perils} in form of mismanagement of natural resources, manipulation of government contracts and illicit financial flow. Therefore, corruption presents to be one of the worst problems of today's time.

② Multiple aspects of corruption::

- 2.1 Private gain from public fund
- 2.2 Manipulation of government contracts
- 2.3 Trespassing the regulations to speed up process

3. Corruption as the world's worst disease in today's times.

3.1 Illegal control of government contract - Petrobras, a state oil company, incident in Brazil.

That does not indicate manifestation or impact of corruption

3.2 Means of illicit financial flow results in

$ 1.26 trillion cost to developing countries according to World Economic Forum.

3.3 Diminishing of the aid fund - Afghan aid's $1 billion lost

3.4 Economic weakening of transactions - States - $ 152 billion lost every year by European Union.

Financial loss is one argument. No matter where it happens.

3.5 Mismanagement of the natural resources - Corruption in logging and mining industry of Solomon Island.

3.6 Corruption of political institute weakens governance - Panama paper leak incident Pakistan.

3.7 Fiscal mismanagement leading to instability - Stagnation of National Finance Commission Award in Pakistan.

if you are going to say misguided flow

the point is the same as resources are of 3.2, 3.3

4. Presence of other vice affecting country's governance system:

- 4.1 Erosion of democratic pillars
- 4.2 Extensive government surveillance
- 4.3 Inappropriate economic regulation
- 4.4 Socio-economic problems such as poverty

Only one problem in a paragraph.

5. Recommendations to curb

Corruption:

- 5.1 Strengthening of anti-corruption organisation
- 5.2 Correct publication of government spending
- 5.3 Strict implementation of anti-corruption legislation
- 5.4 Bureaucratic reforms ragne

6. Conclusion.

Attention grabber?

The presence of corruption across the world is displaying a wide range of weakening factors that present corruption to be a leading element of demise in today's times. Corruption, a perilous phenomenon, exists in a multifaceted way which affects each and every aspect of organisation.

The prominence of corruption is seen in the form of misguiding weakening of economic stature of transnational organisations such as European Union. Moreover, the misguided flow and usurping of the mobilisation of aid display the existence of corruption at global and state level. Furthermore, mishandling of the public finances and natural resources in fiscal domain lead to the debilitation of the country. Although there are other vices present to weaken the governing apparatus, yet the corruption reflects highest perils in form of mismanagement of resources, manipulation of government contracts and illicit financial flows Therefore, corruption presents to be one of the worst problems of today's time

The multifaceted aspect of corruption is corroborated with its affect on the various institutions. Most of the times, power elite is involved in corruption through private gain from public fund. In addition to this, the manipulation of government contracts for the procurement of benefit of specific organisation, also reflects the menace of corruption. Besides, exploitation of fiscal measures, the avoidance of regularisations also comes under the domain of fraudulence.

Too verbose. Simplify the expression ambiguity

There is no discussion. You are listing the points one after the other.

The presence of corruption as the worst problem ~~and~~ deception in today's world is exhibited by various eye events and reports of reputable organizations. The illegal control of the government ~~contracts~~ provide assistance to the powerful personnels to yield the benefit for the organisations.

Equate it to a disease as done in the topic. Not to something else.

Transition should focus on moving to next discussion point. Not on the sources utilised for their discussion

One of the symptoms that present ~~corruption~~ as the worst disease in the world today is whatever effect of corruption you want to discuss. Topic sentence should be to the point, direct and clear. It's sentence structure should be as simple as it can be.

It allows the firm to secure a vast number of contracts for the leverage of organisation

Why is that corruption?

In this regard, an investigation revealed the ~~authorita~~ covert control of government contracts by the state owned well known oil company in Brazil Petrobras, a leading oil manufacturer of Brazil, was accused of attaining and controlling government contracts.

This act devoids the establishment of other firms, and leads to the deceleration in development.
Hence, corruption present to be

this should be the point

an affliction in today's world.

Moreover, corruption opens up a conduit of illicit means of financial flow. This fraudulence proves to be an onus on the economic indicators of the developing countries. According to report of World Economic Forum, around $132 trillion $1.26 trillion is lost by developing countries.

This cumulative figures shows the cumbersome position of the financial resources of the developing states due to corruption.

Dishonest activities in a country allows the dissemination of funds public budget towards other avenues. Therefore, corruption in form of illicit means of financial flow present to be a growing peril in contemporary times.

elaborate how?

How?

The report does not indicate how this is lost. What role is of corruption here?

This only shows financial loss. This does not attribute the loss to corruption in any way.

The discussion should be before the example.

Paragraph structure is compromised.

Create the link to the topic. The topic is the worst disease in the world not the dangers of corruption. Use the same imagery and wording as indicated in the topic. Don't change the contextual image given in the topic.

Word choice

Diminishing and usurping
Are not interchangeable.

Expression

You are not discussing forms of corruption. You are discussing why is it considered the worst disease in the world.

Say more in fewer words not less in more words. Your sentences should be powerful and comprehensive, not washed out and ambiguous.

~~Not the point~~

~~repetitive~~

Financial loss is Financial loss no matter the kind of funds being discussed. This is the same as previous argument.

Furthermore, the ~~usurping~~ of the public aid also displays the conduction of deceiving activities in form of corruption. The ~~mis~~ guided ~~use~~ flow of financial aid plunges the vulnerable states into the worst security economic recession. Afghanistan approximately lost $1 billion aid due to the conduction of ~~misguidance~~ and illicit activities. The expropriation of aid of war torn countries further exacerbates the conflict in the zone. Hence, the dangerous implications of corruption position it to be the worst perils in the world.

In addition to this, the threatening consequences of corruption are also displayed ~~at~~ at the global level. The risks of inappropriate usage of funds lead to weakening of the transnational organisations Around $132 billion are lost every year by the inter-governmental organisation of European Union. This results in a wave of disarray within organisation and proves to be hindrance in the effective functioning of the the exhibition of the weakening of the organisations places corruption to be the most jeopardizing activity of today's times.

~~Ref~~

Your argument is the effect of corruption, don't discuss the effect of the effect as well. Either make the argument about internal disarray or financial loss. Not both at the same time. 3.2, 3.3 and 3.4 all discuss the effects of embezzlement. You can discuss one aspect only once. The other effects can also be attributed to other aspects of corruption. Diversify your analysis.

Besides imposing financial restrictions, ~~corruption also~~

Corruption does not represent itself. It is represented as. This is academic writing not informal writing. You cannot personify non living beings.

Discuss why is it the worst disease
Or how it is the worst disease. There is No link to that established anywhere.

~~represents itself in form of~~ ~~mishandling of the natural~~ ~~resources. Either through excessive~~ ~~utilisation or incorrect~~

Choose one here

~~distribution~~
~~of natural resources, this dishonesty~~ ~~depletes a country's natural~~ ~~reservoirs. In this regard, the~~ ~~prominent mineral excavation~~ and deforestation incidents in the Solomon Islands reflect the exploitation of natural reserves

logging and mining industry of Solomon Islands is saturated with the ineffective and mismanagement of the natural sources. This presents an imminent threat of lessening of the country's resources. Therefore, the act of double-dealing in governing apparatus results to be the biggest threat in today's world

Additionally, the presence of elite capture in the political institutes weakens the state's apparatus. Corrupt activities of the elements of political system lead to the exhaustion of the monetary sector of a developing state. The incident of Simons paper leak in the Pakistan depicts the position of elite Relevance?

No relation to corruption?

Proof?

Topic sentence has no relation to the topic. You have to relate it to the topic in each paragraph. Remind the examiner of the topic. Make it clear that you are still relevant. Again and again.

Two different Aspects of corruption in one paragraph.

Why? How? How does this make corruption the worst disease. No analysis is given.

capture and redirection of state's fund to ~~other~~ ^{for} utilisation in of personal benefits. The prominent presence of political leaders and other figureheads of the state

overtly showed the ~~silent~~ growth of conduct of illicit activities in the state. Hence, furtive conduct of ~~activities~~ as part of state's affairs present to be the worst disease in the world.

Discussion and analysis should be written before the example. There is no point in doing it after example.

Moreover, the ~~fiscal~~ ~~mismanagement~~ leads to the weakening and instability in the federating units. Incorrect provision of fiscal measures result in the prevalence of animosity within a country.

This fault line is present in Pakistan in form of the Stagnation in the National

Finance Commission Award (NFC).
Misappropriate and its mobilisation

already discussed

You already discussed it in form of organisational disarray. The organisation is changing from an IGO to a state. Argument is the same.

of financial revenues culminates into provincial discord with a

This implicates a negative consequence toward the federal units, marring the objective of equity. Therefore, corruption affecting the smooth flow of provision of financial resources, is shown to be one of the most perilous acts of today's world.

Positive

Other ~~has~~ ^{also} then the menace of corruption, there are other negative acts present which propagates to be a threat in contemporary times. The fast

erosion of democratic pillars

all over the world is another imminent problem. The ~~to~~ recession of democratic elements in form of authoritative and autocratic control are widely seen across the world. The back-

expression

word choice

sliding of democracy is showing across the globe in form of restricting the participation of public. Hence, there are other dangerous acts present as opposed to corruption.

example?

In addition to this, the growing presence of extreme surveillance in the country

ies

is curbing the rights of freedom of speech. People are being plunged to follow a blind track of dictation. Development of extreme resistance in the conduct of information devoids

the citizen & from their fundamental right. Hence, the growing restriction of government across the globe pres shows to a more dangerous than corruption.

That's a separate point

example?

Furthermore, there are other socio-economic conundrums that silently ~~int~~ affect the social institutions. Uncontrolled prevalence of poverty and population explosion ^{2 arguments} further are involved in the restraint of the progression of the society.

Such prominently present problems which trespasses the policies of alleviation are more positioned to be more risky for the community. As a result, other socio-economic perplexity is mauled to be more nefarious than corruption in today's times.

The growing threat of corruption across the world needs to be curtailed with the help of implementation of recommendations.

Foremost, the strengthening of anti-corruption organisations is of utmost importance. Secondly, the correct publication of government tone

expenditure for the ~~pro~~ transparency and accountability of the state's budget. Thirdly, strict implementation and execution of the anti-corruption legislations to ~~purish~~ set a precedence for the corrupt and organisations. Lastly, bolstering of the bureaucratic reforms for prevention of trespassing of regularisations. Consequently, the correct and effective implementation of the reforms for the anti-corruption drive will prove to be conducive in curbing corruption.

Inshereut

Corruption in form of a growing bane in every aspect of institution is present as a ~~is~~ dangerous activity in today's world. The penetration of fraudulent activities ~~at~~ is represented in form of mishandling of

Start the conclusion with a concluding phrase

Sentence structure

public funds, natural resources and elite capture. The growing shadow of corruption influences the global organisations in form of depletion of resources and misallocation of funds. However, the risks and threats of this illegal activity can be overturned with help of correct reforms. Therefore, corruption with its expanding tentacles exhibits to be afflicting the global world in worst forms and requires the effective implementation of the reforms.