

Q#2: Preci

Pakistanis and Schengen Visas

Schengen countries reject Pakistani visa applications on silly reasons. Applying feels like a result-known crime. However, Pakistan does ~~that~~ contrary. Schengen considers that Pakistanis will do something unusual all-across although Pakistanis have drained themselves in formalities. The realization might come when facing the same from Pakistan.

Q#3: Comprehension.

Q#i- The reasons behind Foreman's transition from boxing to business were that when he retired he was financially well but his bad decisions, uncontrolled spending and poor financial planning made him financially unwell and the main reason of transition were financial issues.

Q#ii- The competitive advantage that George Foreman Grill had was his fame. The fame he already got from boxing paved the way forward as a competitive advantage and made him successful in business.

Q#iii- If Foreman had not sold the name rights, the business would have collapsed. The time when Foreman got success, the markets started to expand and the competition was increasing and market saturated - therefore, if he had not sold the name rights, the business would've collapsed.

Q#iv- Many contrasted and complementary sentiments are evoked in this story like criticism, humor, emotions, resilience, reinvention.

And tenacious aspects of life - All these sentiments were evoked in this story.

Q#v. The text has brilliantly show-cased the true picture of Foreman and his struggle. The text pictured his resilience and his not giving-up attitude. The wise use of fame and the struggle behind transition from boxing to business reflects multiple aspects of Foreman's life.

Q#4 - Correction.

i) Most of the shelves in the library are empty.

ii) The culture of our country is richest than any other country in the world.

iv) Ten miles is a long distance.

v) He told us about the history of the school, the school curriculum and a brief speech about his job as principal.

vi) She is one of the students who has passed the competitive exams.

vii) The student wrote a 20-pages report last night.

viii) Learning piano requires a lot of efforts.

Q#5A. Punctuation.

Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. Whenever, your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip — said the waiter. She is the daughter of a billionaire replied Bill Gates and I am the son of a poor carpenter. This is why it is often said "Never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher."

Q#5B. Prepositions.

i) He poured the water into the glass

v) There were lots of shops in the main street.

vi) The thief has run away along some money.

vii) He wrote them a cheque of $1000.

viii) A grey mackintosh was folded in her arm.

ix) The people were driven upon despair by the horrors of war.

Q#6. A. Pair of Words.

i) Peek : She was peeking from the window, so I asked her to come in!

ii) Founder : Columbus discovered America but he can be also named as founder of America.

Floundering : She was floundering as the paper came in front of her.

iii) voracious : She voraciously read everything and everyone calls her a bookworm.

veracious : The research paper contains veracious facts and figures.

Q#6-B. Pair of Words.

vii) As full as a tick: On asking her marks in the exams, she replied that she got as full as a tick.

vi) Fat and Sassy: Celebrities portray themselves as fat and sassy but in real life they are very sad.

v) Midas touch: He has something like midas touch as he got the job easily.

iii) eat crow: India lost champion's trophy and so-called cricket analysts were eating crows.

i) blot one's copy-book: She copied each and everything from her friend's assignment and everyone was teasing her, blotting one's copy-book. that she has

iv) Dead wood: He is such a dead wood, he doesn't like going out at all.

Q#1 : Translation.

African philosopher once said that when Americans came Africa they had innovation and we had land. They told us that we will develop you. We blindly trusted them and when our eyes got opened they had our land and we had innovation. Similarly, when social networking science came, they had Facebook and whatsapp and said it is free. Again we blindly trusted them and when at opening the blinds we had Facebook and whatsapp and they had our private informations and freedom.

Therefore, whenever there is something free we have to pay its cost from our freedom.