

ARFA TARIQ

PRECIS - TEST-1

Batch = 01/online

Q2

Ans

Passage

Q1

Ans:

The primary reason of many people unsuccessful to retain the New Year resolutions are their emotional desires burden from the society and the Pathway through which they move towards their aims.

Ans 2

The resolutions like to be ineffective because the aims of the people are not realistic and Unclear also not fully designed according to their daily routine tasks.

Ans 3:

They think that New Year give us golden chance to forget their past and restart new <sup>systematic</sup> life. This feelings of fresh start of human desire make them failure at starting of the year even in weeks or months.

Ans 4

The effective way to achieving lasting change is that people should be realistic ~~not~~ rather than idealistic and set their aims that match with their daily personal life through this they can achieve lasting change.

Q3: (Similar words)

- 1) Transparent
- 2) Expressive
- 3) Relieve
- 4) Aggravate
- 5) Everywhere
- 6) Reticent
- 7) Hate
- 8) Scrupulous
- 9) Productive
- 10) Lack of interest

Q1

Ans.

Precis:

A corruption oftenly start with small act such as bribes or changing rules. It looks like harmless in separate but collabortively lead to societal damage. This small compromises produce bad effects, dishonesty and destroy the trust in society. Overtime this small corruption fosters inefficiency, divert public resource and merit become subordinary. For example Cheating students may later fail in their professional roles become incompetence and ineligible. Corruption also increase inequality by using shortcuts and Produce resentment also weakening societal integrity. Studies reveal that societies with small corruption face bigger crimes like political problems and economic struggles. Even small actions can cause serious harm, so, its important to stop corruption to create a fair and unbiased society.