

Q2. Misconception of Pakistani citizens. day / date:

Pakistani citizens applying for Schengen countries visa appears as tracking your dreams with the world in response of clear rejection from them. While western citizens receives a warming response from us. They think Pakistanis cause trouble to them while all their energy exhausted in documents submission if get a visa. They will only understand Pakistani citizens' struggle if they ride in same boat.

Total words = 63

Q:3:-

(i) —

After retiring from boring at age of 45, Foreman invested in his authentic self become a preacher and family man. It was at his wife insistence he switched to business.

(ii) —

The competitive advantage of George Foreman grill was it was more like family and fun with Foreman cooking burger. Soon it become the household name.

(iii) ———
 With increasing competition market was becoming saturated. It became less worthy if Roseman had not sold the name rights

(iv) ———
 Bad decisions, poor financial planning, strong instincts, resilience, reinvention and knowing how to cash fame are some contrasted and complementary sentiments evoked in story.

(v) ———
 Text is successful in presenting Roseman's struggle of making some bad decisions and then coming out of it with a stronger come back.

Q No 4:

(i) ———
 Most of the shelves in the library are empty.

(ii) ———
 Chocolate or vanilla, which you like # (more) best?

(iii) ———
 The culture of our country is richest than any other country in the world.

Ten mile — (iv) — is a long distance.

she is one of the students who has passed competitive exams — (vi) —

Learning to play piano requires a lot of efforts. — (viii) —

Q5:-

A.

punctuation:-

Bill Gates, once had coffee at a coffee shop when the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. Whenever you daughter comes for a coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip, said the waiter. She is the daughter of billionaire, replied Bill Gates and I am son of a poor Carpenter. This is why it is often said, never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher.

B.

Prepositions:-

He poured the water into the glass. — (i) —

The government ⁽ⁱⁱ⁾ has strided in difficulties

The people ⁽ⁱⁱⁱ⁾ were driven in despair
by horrors of war

His success ^(iv) cannot be cried out by anyone

There were ^(v) lots of shops on the main road

The thief ^(vi) has run away with some money.

He wrote them ^(vii) a cheque of $1000

A grey mackintosh was ^(viii) folded in her bag.

Q No 6. A

Peek. ⁽ⁱ⁾

~~(open)~~ I peek her in the market.

Pique.

Their sourness piqued me

(ii)

Flounder

The donkey was floundering.

Founder.

Who is the founder of this firm?

(iii)

Voracious.

Voracious people's are found everywhere.

Veracious.

I like veraciousness.

(iv)

Tortuous.

The route to murree is tortuous.

Torturous.

The year was full of torturous experiences.

(v)

Epigram:

Oscar Wilde is famous for epigram.

Epigraph:

This building is famous for epigraphs.

Q7 once an african intellectual had said when Britishers come to africa they have innovation and we have land. They said, we came here to make you successful we closed our eyes. when we opened eyes we have innovation and they have our lands. same as when social network science came they have facebook and whatsapp. They said, it is free. we closed our eyes and when we opened we have whatsapp and facebook and they have our freedom and personal informations. So, when something is free we have to pay our freedom for it.

Q6. b

(a) —
He blotted his copybook by using fool language.

(ii) —
The old man really needs to hang up his hat.

(iii) —
Its not easy to eat crow for anyone.