

Name: Aysya Siddiq

Batch: 376

Question — 02

Title: The Schengen visa - A virtual reality for Pakistani citizens.

The Schengen visa have become a virtual reality for Pakistani citizens as they face rejection on irrational grounds and made-up international image. Contrary to that, Pakistan overwhelmingly welcomes foreigners regardless of their visas and thoughts. Which is why, Schengen countries should also consider Pakistani applicants indiscriminately, just as it would consider any other states citizen.

Words: 56

Question — 03

Answer no 1:

Foreman's transition from boxing to business was led by authenticity outside the ring, which earned him an unexpected opportunity. Foreman utilized that opportunity well enough that he earned a fortune. Moreover, he knew the importance of right time to switch.

Answer no 2:

The competitive advantage of the George Foreman Grill was way higher and bold. That made him earn noticeable profit. Foreman followed his instincts and put in smart effort to make the strategy work.

Answer no 3:

Foreman sold the naming rights following his crucial principle: just as its important to know when to get in, it's equally important to know when to get out. Moreover, the competition was increasing, and the market was becoming saturated. So, it was the right time to step away.

Question no 4:

The contrasted sentiments in the story refers to the idea of not holding on to a single hanging rope. While the complementary sentiments underscores the importance of not giving up and not paying attention to unnecessary soundboring distortion.

Answer no 5:

The text represented the significant picture of Foreman and his struggle. It lamented a proportionate image of his career's highs and lows, reflecting the struggles of his life. It highlights Foreman's resilience, spontaneity and smart work to overcome hardships.

Question — 07.

An African philosopher once said that, "when Britishers came to Africa they had technology and we had land. They said they are here for our development and we followed them with our eyes closed. When our eyes opened, we had technology and they had our land. Similarly, we closed our eyes again, when social networking science initiated and they developed Facebook and whatsapp, which was offered free of cost. When we woke up, we had Facebook and whatsapp and they had our freedom and personal information. Thus, whenever something is free, we have to pay back by costing our freedom".

Question - 05 (A)

Bill Gates once had a coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away

Bill Gates tipped him one dollar.

"Whenever your daughter comes for coffee she gives me a five-dollar tip", said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire", replied Bill Gates, "and I am the son of a poor carpenter". This is why, it is often said, "Never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher".

Question - 5 (B)

i - In viii - Around v - on vii - of vi - with

Question - 04

Corrected Sentences:-

(i) Most of the shelves in the Library are empty.

(iv) Ten mile is a long distance.

(vii) learning to play piano requires a lot of effort.

(vii) The student wrote a 20-pages report last night.

(vi) She is one of the students who has passed competitive exams.

Question — 6(A)

1- (iii) voracious - A person who is voracious for knowledge is better than a person chasing money only.
 veracious - The quality of being veracious shall pay in the world and hereafter as well.

2. (v) Shear - Applying shear stress on inelastic materials would break them.

Sheer - Artificial intelligence have become a sheer reality.

3- ^(vi) Discreet - Taiwan's claim of discretion is vulnerable due to Chinese and American interests.

Discreet - China is discreet about its naval deployment in the South-China sea.

4- ^(vii) Quaint - Norte-dan Cathedral is very quaint in appearance.

Queer - Queer identities are subjected to ~~indiscrim~~ination in most of the states.

5- ^(viii) Epigram - Epigrams provides insightful idea about a specific subject.

Epigraph - Epigraphs are often ignored, but they provide the main theme of the writings.

Question - 6 (B)

1- ^(iv) Dead wood - History is more like a dead wood but helps in predicting future.

- 2- (iii) Eat crow - It's difficult to communicate our message to people who eat crows.
 - 3- (vi) Fat and Sassy - Some people are fat and sassy about the integration of artificial intelligence in daily life.
 - 4- (vii) As full as a tick - Eating as full as a tick leads to obesity.
 - 5- Shrinking violet - Third world countries should be more open and not a shrinking violet when asking for legitimate compensations from the west for environmental cohesion.
-