

Date: _____

Day: _____

Q#4

- i) Most of the shelves in the library are empty.
- iii) The culture of our country is richer than the culture of any other country in the world.
- iv) Ten mile is a long distance.
- vi) She is one of the students who has passed competitive exams.
- vii) The student has written a report of twenty pages last night.
- ii) Chocolate or vanilla: Which you like the most?

Q#5

Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar.

"Whenever your daughter comes for coffee she gives me a five-dollar tip", said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire".

replied Bill Gates, "and I am the son of a poor carpenter." This is why it is often said, "never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher"

Q#5 (B)

- vi) The thief has run away with some money.
- vii) He wrote them a cheque of $1000.
- v) There were lots of shops in the main street.
- i) He poured the water into the glass.
- iii) The people were driven over despair by the horror of war.

Date: _____

Day: _____

viii) A grey mackintosh was folded over her arm.

Q#6 (A)

Discrete: The discrete group was made ^{only} for officers.

Discreet: The police should make a discreet inquiry.

Voracious: He is a voracious reader.

Veracious: He is a veracious student.

Q#7

African thinker stated that when English-people came to Africa they had innovation and we had land. They said that we come up with the purpose of reinvigorating you. We followed them blindly.

Date: _____

Day: _____

When we regained our senses, we had innovation and they had our land. In the same way, when social media brought forth to the scene, they had Facebook and Whatsapp. They claimed that these are for free. We had closed our eyes. When we regain our conscious, we had Facebook and Whatsapp and they had taken our independence and personal information. Thus, if something costs nothing, we have to give our independence in order to pay its cost.

Q#3

(1)

Foreman had a transition from boxing to business. The reasons behind his transition was his growing age and changing interests. He revised himself and his goals according to his needs and his nourishing nature.

(2)

George Foreman Grill gave a great competitive advantage. His name came on the front and made him famous. George Foreman Grill turned into a household name and gave him an amount of $7 million per month. Thus, it gave him fame and financial stability.

Date: _____

Day: _____

(3)

Foreman would face a huge loss if he had not sold the name rights. He sold his name rights by taking a handsome amount. If he had not sold his name rights, he would not get that money. Furthermore, he lost his business as competition in the market was increasing day-by-day.

(4)

Many contrasted and complementary sentiments are evoked in this story. This story tells the lesson of persistence. At the same time, it teaches people to move wisely and take the step back if an estimate does not go in favour of it. It is appreciable if a person knows when and how to take a step in any field. This technique of using the fame and skill will help people to progress in life.

(5)

This text is far more successful in presenting the true picture of Foreman and his struggle. This story depicts his hardwork, reinvigoration and wisdom. Moreover, his continuous struggles make him famous and a motivation for those people who do not identify their hidden talent.

Title : Discrimination and a sense of inferiority for Pakistani citizens.

Schengen countries reject ^{the} Pakistani visa applications by giving them any lame excuse. They reject their applications on baseless reasons. However, if a Western citizen applies for Pakistani visa, Pakistani people give them the warm welcome. Schengen countries have a doubt that Pakistani people cause the trouble across Europe without counting their struggles. These countries should realize that Pakistani people have the same rights as people from any other nation.

Total words: approximately 210

Summarized words: 70