Translation

Once an African thinker said that British landed in Africa and claimed to bring innovations here, so we blindly trusted them. When we were shaken to reality, we were left with inaction and British captivated our land. Similarly, when social networking was introduced with applications such as whatsapp, facebook, these applications were given away with no cost. We again trusted them blindly and this time when we were shaken to reality and their true colors revealed that now our freedom and privacy is now in their control. Thus, a thing with no price is given away at the expense of freedom.
