advantage of the George Foreman Grill was its unique fat-reducing design, featuring slanted grilling surfaces that allowed excess fat to drain away. Its quick cooking time, ease of use and celebrity endorsement by George Foreman made it highly marketable, popularity and long-term success.

Ans. 3

If the Foreman had not sold the name rights to the grill, he would have earned a small share of profit. The brand's popularity and success was due to his name that boosted sales. So having rights in higher earnings but less exposure.

Date: _____

Day: _____

Answer : 4

This story evokes contrasted sentiments of shifting from a fierce, angry boxer to a humble, peaceful figure after embracing faith. Complimentarily, his perseverance led to success in business with spiritual growth.

Answer : 5

The text successfully portrays Foreman's true picture by highlighting his intense struggle both in ring and personally. It captures his transformation from aggressiveness to humble personality.
