

PART-II

Q.2

Discrimination against Pakistani Citizens

Schengen countries reject visa applications from Pakistani citizens on absurd reasons. Citizens prepare their file to submit, but they reject the files, stating reasons that documents are incomplete or bank balance is not sufficient. On the other hand, if a Western citizen applies for a Pakistani visa, Pakistan does not create hurdles. Schengen countries assume that Pakistani will cause problems across Europe. However, they are already exhausted. Schengen countries must consider that Pakistani citizens are human too and provide ease for them.

Q.3

... .. problems

Date: _____

Day: _____

(1)

After becoming broke, George Foreman returned to the boxing ring and became the oldest world heavyweight champion in the history. This time, he grabbed a business opportunity, named "George Foreman Grill", and promoted the business by featuring himself as loving father in commercials. The business became famous and he successfully transitioned himself from a boxer to a businessman.

(2)

The George Foreman Grill earned a huge profit, selling millions of units annually. The company has competitive edge that George Foreman recorded commercials featuring himself. Moreover, they promoted family and fun rather than the product. In this way, the product became famous ~~among~~ and sold in millions.

(3)

In 1999, George Foreman sold the naming rights and earned $137.5 million. If Foreman had not sold the name rights, he would have to competition was market was why, he

Date: _____

The story
by evoking
sentiments:
of retirement
ring, becoming heavyweight transitioned Emotions and will through

The
the
and decision to and show
in

would have to bear loss as competition was increasing and market was becoming saturated. That's why, he decided to step away.

(4)

The story is beautifully written by evoking contrasted and complementary sentiments: defeat in boxing, announcement of retirement, returned to the boxing ring, becoming the oldest world heavyweight champion, and successful transitioned from boxing to business. Emotions of resilience, reinvention, and wisdom are perfectly evoked through these events.

(5)

The story successfully presents the true picture of Foreman and his struggle. From bad decisions and poor financial planning to successful use of ~~and~~ fame and earning money, all events show struggle of George Foreman in his ^{entire} career.

Date: _____

Day: _____

(i)

Most of the shelves in the library are empty.

(ii)

Chocolate or vanilla: which do you like most?

(iv)

Ten miles is a long distance.

(vi)

She is one of the students who have passed competitive exams.

(vii)

The student has written a 20-page report last night.

te: _____

Day: _____

Q. 5. A.

Bill Gates, once, had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip", said the waiter, "she is the daughter of a billionaire", replied Bill Gates, "and I am the son of a poor carpenter." This is why, it is often said: never forget your past because your past is ~~the~~ your greatest teacher.

B.

(i)

He poured the water into the glass

greatest teacher.

B.

(i)

He poured the water into the glass

(vi)

The thief has run away with some money.

(vii)

He wrote them a cheque of $1000.

(iii)

The people were driven by despair
by the horrors of war.

(ii)
The government has tided with difficulties.

Q.C.A.

(ii)
Founder: Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah was the founder of Pakistan.

(vi)
Discrete: This mathematical problem has a discrete solution.

(vii)
Queer: After becoming successful, Qasim showed queer behaviour.

Quaint: He become quaint after finishing his homework.

Date: _____

Q.7.

Thinker of Africa once said: when Englishmen came Africa, they had technology and we had land. They said, we came to develop you. We closed our eyes. After becoming conscious, we had technology and they had our land. Similarly, when social network science emerged, they had Facebook and Whatsapp. They said, "it is free". We believed them. Later on, we had Facebook and Whatsapp and they had our freedom and personal data. Thus, whenever there is a free thing, we have to pay with our freedom.