

Q03: Reading Comprehension

Ans 01: The reasons behind Foreman's transition from boxing to business were becoming a preacher, a devoted father of twelve and the man who brought his family over burgers. This authority led him to an unexpected business opportunity.

Ans 02: The competitive advantage of the George Foreman Grill was its unique design that allowed grease to drain off one side.

Ans 03: The market was becoming saturated as the competition was increasing. Had Foreman not sold the name rights on time, he might have got so much less than $137.5 million due to increased competition of the product in the market.

Ans 04: The contrasted and complementary sentiments are evoked in the story by depicting resilience, reinvention and understanding that true success comes from using fame wisely.

Day: _____

Date: _____

~~Q. 3~~ :

Ans. a) :

The true picture of Foreman and his struggle is presented very successfully in the text as it is very well-netted and touches upon the themes of not giving up, discovering one's self and using fame wisely as Foreman did after being a managing boxer and getting off-track and stuck in financial problems after retiring from boxing.

Day: _____

③

Date: _____

Q4: sentence correction:

1. ✓ Most of the shelves in the library are empty.
2. ✓ Chocolate or Vanilla: What do you like best?
3. ~~3. A student has written a 20 pages report last night.~~
4. ✓ Ten miles is a long distance.
5. ✓ He told us about the history of the school its curriculum and a <sup>brief</sup> speech on his job as principal.
6. ✓ She is one of the student who has passed the competitive exams.
7. ✓ Learning to play piano requires a lot of effort.

Q 5: (A) Punctuations

Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip," said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire", replied Bill Gates "and I am the son of a poor carpenter". This is why, it is often said that "Never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher."

B. Prepositions

(vii) He wrote them a cheque of $1000.

(viii) A grey mackintosh was folded around her arm.

(iii) The people were driven to despair by the horrors of war.

(i) He poured the water into the glass.

(v) There were lots of shops across the main street.

Q7 Translation:

An African thinker once said that when the Britishers came to Africa, they had technology and we had lands. They told us that we are here to make you prosper. We closed our eyes and believed them. When we opened our eyes to reality, we had technology and they had our lands. Similarly, when social ~~media~~ network science came, they had Facebook and WhatsApp. They said that it's free. We closed our eyes and when we woke up, we had Facebook and WhatsApp and they had our freedom and personal information. So, any-thing which is free, we pay for it at the cost of our freedom.