English Translation

Once, an African scholar said that when English came to Africa, they had modernism and we had land. They began to say that we came here to prosper you. We became blind. We had modernism and they had our land on opening our eye. Similarly, when social network science was introduced, they had Facebook and WhatsApp then. They said that they are free of cost. We became blind and when we opened our eye, we had Facebook and WhatsApp and they had our freedom and personal information. Thus, we have to pay it with our freedom when<sup>ever</sup> anything becomes free of cost.
