

Part II :-

Question 1 :-

The problem of denying visa applications of Pakistani citizens by Schengen citizen countries is similar to getting ready for an elite event only for hearing disapproval. Appearing for Schengen visa seems like documenting one's hopes for the world to see, only for receiving a disagreement on trivial apprehensions. While, Pakistani visa is granted with open arms to westerners to enjoy Pakistani culture. Probably, Schengen countries believe that Pakistanis will cause disturbance in their area even after they have exhausted their finances and energy in the visa process. Certainly, they will understand when the role will be reversed that Pakistanis are not some alien but they are a specie.

Title :- Visa Process: An Ordeal.

QUESTION 3:-

i) As ~~he left~~ Foreman left boxing but later needed money to sustain himself, he announced his comeback but this time he reinvented his personality from being a strong boxer to an authentic, jubilant and positive personality. Similarly, he made a connection with his fans and showcasing his love for cheese burgers and this provided him with an opportunity of business. Moreover, he transitioned from boxing to business because he was not fit for the task so he reinvented himself.

ii) There were quite a few competitive advantage of George Foreman Grill. First, the grill had a unique design that allowed grease to drain off one side. Second, the bold counter offer of branding the product as the "George Foreman Grill" and third by advertising himself cooking surrounded by his children and family, emphasizing importance of family and fun gave him advantage over his competitors.

iii) Foreman did a very calculated move by selling the name rights. If he had not done it then he would have lost his popularity because the market was getting saturated and it was ~~in~~ an important step by Foreman to know when to step in and when to step out. Thus, it was a right decision to sell the name rights.

iv)

v) The text is very much successful in presenting the true picture of Foreman and his struggle. The text represented how he reinvented himself opposite of his professional career and then transitioning from a boxer to a businessman despite the criticism of people.

Question 4:-

- 1) Most of the shells in the library are empty.
- 4) Ten miles are a long distance.
- 2) Which one do you like the best: chocolate or vanilla?
- 6) She is one of the students who has passed competitive exams.
- 7) The student has written a report of 20-pages, last night.

Question 5:- (A)

Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dish away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes here for coffee, she gives me a five dollar tip," said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire", replied Bill Gates, "And I am the son of a poor carpenter." This is why it is often said, "Never forget your ~~past~~ past because your past is your greatest teacher".

(B)

- 1) He poured the water in the glass
- 2) The government has tried by difficulties.
- 3) There were a lots of shops on the main street
- 6) The thief has run away with some money
- 7) He wrote them a cheque of $1000

Question 6:-

ii) Flounder

As the residential area becomes marshy due to excessive rainfall, the residents flounder their way out of the area.

Founder:-

The founder of the terrorist organization died anonymously, last night.

iii) Voracious

Forest explorers got attacked by voracious animals in the forest.

Vexacious

The vexaciousness of Dany in highly dangerous game, got her killed.