

Precis

Schengen countries rejecting Pakistanis visa is a situation similar to - not being welcomed at a reputed gathering. The acceptance of Schengen visas has become a distant-dream for Pakistani applicants. Whereas, Pakistan is very generous in providing visas to them. They perceive Pakistanis as a threat to Europe, even after the tiresome visa process. Schengen countries must see Pakistanis as normal beings. Maybe they will understand this when they themselves would have to go through the similar visa process to get Pakistani visa.

Title: Schengen Visas and Pakistanis

YOUSAF PAPER

Total words: 213 , Words Required : 71

words Written: 78

Comprehension

Ans-1. Foreman's transition from boxing to business was driven by several factors: For instance starting with his defeat by Muhammad Ali and his announcement of getting retired. After retirement mismanagement of finances and wrong decisions was another reason. Another, contributing factor was his age. Along with that business efficiently maintained his finances and livelihood. ^{Provided him with the opportunity to}

Ans-2. The George Foreman Grill had several key competitive advantages. Firstly it had a unique design ^{which} allowed grease to drain off to one side. Secondly, Foreman's family-oriented image was central to grill's marketing. Furthermore, Foreman's charismatic personality and the focus on family and enjoyment rather than just the product itself; made the product stand out.

YOUSAF PAPER

Ans.3. If Foreman had not sold the name right-, he would have faced challenges in maintaining the grill's dominance in the market. This could have led to ~~elimina~~ reduced earning. Additionally, selling the rights at the right time allowed him to secure a profit, which would have not been possible otherwise.

Ans.4. The story evokes a mixture of contrasted and complementary sentiments like: Foreman went from financial ruin (failure) to being the wealthiest man (success). Secondly, he transformed from being an intimidating, powerful boxer to a happy, and a cheerful ~~happy~~ family man. Furthermore, he was criticized for coming back to boxing, and later in business, but he remained persistent. His story is a depiction of resilience and reinvention, and fame and authenticity.

Ans.5. The text has successfully presented the true picture of Foreman and his struggles. The story detailed his rise to fame, fall into financial crisis and his successful comeback. Secondly, his personality transition is explained with clarity from being a feared boxer to a warm family man. Additionally, his bad decisions during the retirement and then his success in business. Thus, overall the text provides a complete picture of Foreman's story.

Q4 Corrections

1. Most of the shelves in the library are empty.
2. Which do you like the best: chocolate or vanilla?
3. The culture of our country is richer than that of any other country.
4. Ten miles is a long distance.
5. She is one of the students who have passed the competitive exam.

Q5. Punctuation

Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop.

YOUSAF PAPER

When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip," said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire," replied Bill Gates, "and I am the son of a poor carpenter." This is why it is often said never forget your past, because your past is your greatest teacher.

B. Prepositions

1. He poured water into the glass.
2. The people were driven to despair by the horrors of war.
3. His success cannot be cried down by anyone.
4. There were lots of shops on the main street.
5. The thief has run away with some money.

Q. b. a.

1. Peek: Her younger sister peeked into the room

Pique: out of curiosity.

Piqued: The blue sapphire peeked

YOU SAF PAPER Piqued her interest.

2. Flounder: She floundered after taking the sleeping pills.

Founder: ~~Qatt~~ is Mohammad Ali Jinnah is the founder of Pakistan.

3. Voracious: He has a voracious appetite for wealth.

Veracious: She cannot help being veracious.

4. Tortuous: The tortuous journey got her nauseous.

Torturous: The torturous treatment of police made him accept his crime.

5. Shear: She shears her dog every summer.

Sheer: Her sheer interest in reading ^{kept} keeps her up all night.

B Idioms

2. Hang up one's hat: After years of traveling, she finally decided to hang up her hat in a small town.

YOUSAF PAPER

2. Eat crow: John had to eat the crow after his friend showed the screenshots of John ^{threatening} abusing him.

3. Dead wood The company decided to eliminate dead wood from the staff to improve efficiency.

4. fat and sassy: After winning the race she felt fat and sassy.

5. As full as tick: He got as full as a tick after the birthday party, and dozed off.

Q.7. Translation

An African thinker once stated that, when ^{the} Englishmen came to Africa they had modernity and we had land. They said that they were here to give us to develop us. We closed our eyes. When we opened the eyes again: we had modernity and they had our lands. Similarly, when social network science was introduced - they had facebook and whatsapp. They presented them for free. We closed our eyes and when opened them again : we had facebook and whatsapp and they had our freedom and personal information. Hence, whenever something is free of cost, we have to pay its cost/price with our freedom.

YOUSAF PAPER

