ENGLISH PRECIS AND COMPOSITION.

"QUESTION - NO. 03"

(1) The reasons behind Foreman's transition from boxing to business were his past bad decisions, his bad and the time when Foreman was broke with no money.

The second reason was his family and children.

Third reason was his ~~opportunity~~ unexpected business opportunity.

(2) The competitive advantage of George Foreman Grill was his fame when he was the undefeated champion; his 40 wins.

(3) If Foreman had not sold the name rights ~~he would not~~

it would become difficult for him to compete in the saturated market. Foreman understood a crucial principle as "it's important to know when to get in, it is equally important to know when to get out" So it was a perfect time for him to step away.

(4) In this story the importance and benefit of right decisions and the decline from peak to bottom due one wrong decision is highlighted. The two different stages of his life ~~was~~ due to decision making are explained.

(5) The picture of Foreman presented in the text is complete. His struggle to become champion and again his struggle to become a successful businessman. Complete life of Fomans life is enclosed in this short paragraph.

"QUESTION - NO. 07"

An African thinker once told when the British came to Africa they had advancement and we had Land. They told "we are here to develop you", ~~but~~ we closed our eyes. When we awake we saw advancement with us and Land with them. Similarly in the era of social networks, they told us that facebook and whatsapp are free, we closed our eyes. and after opening eyes we saw facebook and whatsapp with us at the price of our freedom and personal information. So we always pay with our freedom for things free of cost.
