

Test #1

Question #03

- 1- Candid : Transparent
- 2- Eloquent : Persuasive
- 3- Alleviate : Mitigate
- 4- Exacerbate : Aggravate
- 5- Ubiquitous : Omnipresent
- 6- Taciturn : Quiet
- 7- Abhor : Detest
- 8- Meticulous : Fastidious
- 9- Prolific : Fruitful
- 10- Apathy : Indifference

Question #02

1- What is the primary reason why most people fail to keep their New Year resolutions?

Ans: Most people fail to keep their New Year resolutions not just because their goals are not properly set but their approach is also wrong. Usually these promises are vague. People make idealistic goals that are not aligned with their daily life. So, these are some reasons that despite the good attention, resolutions are rarely sustained.

2- Why do resolutions tend to be ineffective even though people are highly motivated at the start of the year?

Ans: In beginning of a year people are fully motivated to keep their resolutions because they do not sort them with their daily life responsibilities as these are idealistically made. They feel overwhelmed and resolutions tends to be ineffective.

3- What psychological factors keeps people making New Year resolutions year after year despite knowing they may fail?

Ans. It is a psychological factor of human desire to get renewal. As the year starts, it feels like it is a new beginning. It is an opportunity to start fresh. This feeling gives hope. So the people despite knowing that they may fail, make New Year resolution.

4- What is the more effective approach to achieving lasting change instead of making New Year resolutions?

Ans. Instead of making New Year resolutions the most effective approach to achieving lasting change is to make it real. People need to shift from symbolic resolutions to practical, well-defined goals. So they can align them with their personal values, and are structured around achievable step.

Question #01

Corruption: A Seed towards Destruction

According to author, a small bribe or a little rules violation looking insignificant, can create a society where corruption is normalized. It eradicate the fairness and trust from a society. A small favors in public office leads to a system where corruption is preferred instead of ethics and morality. It stop the progress and developments and increase inequality. It give disadvantage to people who follow rule and create distrust, hopelessness in them. Resulting in weakening the society. Studies shows that small corruption leads to large crimes assuming unattainable justice. It causes political instability, economic decline, and social unrest. It is a ^{small} seed that grows into large destruction. A important step is not to fight against scandals but also hold ~~on~~ themselves accountable for their small actions. If every person try to compromise on values, a whole society will be fairer and more equitable.

Passage words: 355

Precis words: 137 ~~140~~