

Date: _____

Always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products

Question 2:

Corruption and its Consequences

The majority overlooks the impacts of minor corruption and considers it harmless. It leads to the cultural normalization of corruption. This in turn threatens the trust and fairness in society. Moreover, ignorance of small unlawful acts lays the foundation for bigger misconducts and systemic corruption. Resultantly, everyone starts to consider it a common phenomenon. The consequences of corruption are not only about damage of moral values. It causes retardation of progress prosperity irrespective of its level. Furthermore, it leads to the resource scarcity, discouragement of meritocracy and inefficiency. It promotes inequality through the use of shortcuts by some people and struggle to uphold the law by others. As a result people feel disappointed and society become

Date: _____

always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR

volatile. In addition, after witnessing the minor corruption, people do not believe in attaining justice even in the case of larger crimes.

Consequently, every kind of societal problem <sup>find</sup> roots and small scale corruption turns out into a ~~big~~ huge destruction. Thus, every one must realize that only grand gestures and managing difficult situations <sup>are</sup> not enough.

Self accountability even in minor steps and responsible decision making <sup>are</sup> necessary. In this way a better world can be shaped by the collective action of every individual in upholding the values.

Precis words = 200

Original words = 368

Question 2:

1:

~~The peop~~

Most people fail to keep their new year resolutions because of their inappropriate approach towards these resolutions. People set these resolution according to sudden desires or under peer pressures.

Moreover, they do not think about longterm strategies. Consequently, when they find it tough to execute these goals, they abandon them.

2:

The resolutions tend to be ineffective because of some reasons. The first is that, the most resolution are poorly defined and broad. The assessment of these kind of resolutions is difficult. Another reason is the idealistic nature of New year goals and their non-alignment with a person's daily life.

Date: _____

always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products * always use only BABAR products *

3:

The psychological factor that keeps the people making New year resolutions year after year is that the start of a new year offers a new start to them. ~~however~~ This causes a person to set some new tasks to refresh him.

4:

The more effective approach to achieve lasting change is that the person needs to make practical and well defined goals. The tasks must ~~also~~ be planned ~~with~~ in accordance with the ~~person's~~ real life ~~and~~