

Mock - English 2

1) Prei

The experiences of Pakistanis applying for Schengen visa differ greatly from a westerner applying for a Pakistani visa. Pakistanis are rejected the Schengen visa for undue reasons probably because of the notion that Pakistanis will create havoc in their societies.

On the contrary, Pakistan welcomes anyone seeking its visa from these countries with enthusiasm, to enjoy the culture and food and even pinpoint problems. Schengen countries should understand that Pakistanis too are human beings and not some deadly aliens.

Topic:- Schengen visa vs. Pakistani Visa.

4) Correction

- * Chocolate or Vanilla, what do you like best?
- * The culture of our country is far rich than any other country in the world.
- * Ten miles is a long distance
- * She is one of the students who passed the competitive exams.
- * ~~Most~~ The student wrote a 20-pager report last night.
- * Most of the shelves in the library are empty
- * Learning to play piano requires a lot of effort.
- * He told us about the history of the school, the school curriculum and gave a brief speech on his job as a principal.

5) (A) Punctuation:

Bill gates, once, had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill gates tipped him one dollar. 'Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip,' said the waiter. 'She is the daughter of a billionaire,' replied Bill gates, and 'I am the son of a poor carpenter.' This is why it is often said, 'Never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher.'

5) (B) Prepositions

- 1) He poured the water in the glass
- 2) The thief has run away with some money

3) He wrote them a cheque of $1000

4) A grey mackintosh was folded on her arm

5) There were lots of shops in the main street.

6) * Flounders:

* Founder: Quaid-e-Azam is the father of Pakistan.

Discrete:

Discreet: You can share your secrets with him, he is very discreet.

Shear: Soldier showed sheer determination and courage.

Sheer:

7) Translation

An African thinker once said that when Britishers came to Africa, they had ^{the} strength and we had the land. They said that we have come to bring prosperity to you. We closed our eyes. When we opened our eyes, we had the strength and they had our ~~times~~ lands. Similarly, when the science of social network began, they had Facebook and Whatsapp. They said that these are free. We closed our eyes and when ^{our} eyes opened, we had Facebook and Whatsapp and they had our freedom and personal information. Thus whenever something is free, we have to give up our independence to pay for its price.

3) Comprehension

1) The reasons behind Foreman's transition from boxing to business was were that he

1) There were a number of reasons behind Foreman's transition from boxing to business. Firstly, Foreman knew that his boxing career was over because of his age. Secondly he knew his popularity and channeled that through his new business.

Thirdly, he had strong business acumen that led him to make big bold moves transitioning from boxing to business.

2) The competitive advantage of the George Foreman grill was that firstly it offered a unique design that allowed grease to drain off one side. Secondly, the name itself acted as a competitive advantage over other competitors as it captured Foreman's popularity and translated into sales of the grill.

3) If Foreman would not have sold the naming rights there is a possibility the sales of the company would have ~~be~~ ~~would~~ decreased due to increase in competition and market saturation. Foreman would have to bear the huge losses, so he understood the risk and made a calculated move of selling the company to save himself of the incoming losses.

4) The contrasting feelings of sadness and joy are evoked in this story through his initial joy, of ^{success}

then sadness of defeat and then resilience of getting back up.
It also ~~shows~~^{evokes} complementary feelings of courage, determination and gratitude through his consecutive successes ^{later} in his late life ~~age~~ in both boxing and business.

5) The text presents the true picture of Foreman and his struggle by pinpointing all the main events or turning points in his life. It proves quite successful as it evokes multiple emotions throughout the text as the reader reads through ^{Foreman's} ~~his~~ his life and his struggles.