

Question no. 2

Title : Visa Applications : Two Worlds Apart

Pakistani citizens visa applications are more frequently rejected by Schengen Countries as opposed to when western citizens apply for Pakistani visa. Due to numerous reasons like incomplete documentation or suspicious intentions, Pakistani citizens visa applications are turned down whereas western citizens seldom face such objections. Despite Pakistani citizens entering a foreign country ~~of~~ legally, they are perceived as troublemakers in Europe. Therefore, Schengen countries needs to realize that Pakistani citizens are as equal humans as western citizens and should be treated accordingly.

QNO3(1)

Feerman's transition from boxing to business was due to numerous reasons. Firstly, he believed in his instincts ~~to~~ ~~give~~ which earned him a great fortune. Secondly, he consulted his wife for business opportunity which proved to be right for him. Thirdly, he never let other people define him like his commentators and went to seize a business opportunity. Fourthly, his ^{lessons from} financial losses in the past backed him throughout his business venture. Moreover, he learned from his past mistakes and defeats and always emerged with an improved mindset ~~for this way~~. Due to these reasons, he transitioned his career from being a boxer to a businessman.

QNO3(2)

George Feerman's Gull's competitive advantage was that it featured boxer George Feerman. ~~He~~, He branded the gull as George Feerman Gull and made commercials featuring himself cooking burgers while surrounded by his family. He brought out the fun and family gathering aspect of cooking rather than the product itself. His strategy turned out to be brilliant as it earned him million dollars in business.

Q No 3(3)

If Foreman had not sold the name rights, he would have been caught up in a cut-throat competition with few chances of survival. What earned Foreman a great profit in business was his innovative ^{business} strategies. However, with a passage of time, market became saturated with similar products. Soon, his business techniques and strategies would have been sold everywhere. Other business would have invited celebrities or rising national stars as their brand ambassadors and featured them in advertisements or commercials. Additionally, the idea of attaching sentiments with food could easily be utilized by other competitors. In this way, product uniqueness would have become ordinary. Moreover, if Foreman was to die, George Foreman Grill name would become questionable. Hence, it was a sound decision to sell the name rights otherwise without continuous innovation, the business would have been doomed.

Q No 3(4)

A good number of contrasted and complementary sentiments are evoked in this story at multiple occasions. For instance, an undefeated champion gets defeated by his competitor. His one loss overshadows his entire life and he ends up announcing his retirement only to be caught up in financial crisis later. However, his deep financial crisis state brings him back to the boxing ring. This turn of events was complemented by criticism ^{and mockery} from ~~colleagues~~. Meanwhile, he changed as a person from being terrifying to a lighthearted person, radiating warmth and charisma. His return in ~~boxing~~ ^{career} was not long ~~and~~ ^{that} he made a transition towards business. While, perplexity and doubt initially prevailed, it was eventually met with self-confidence and clarity. His business insights, strategies and decisions proved to quite lucrative for him. Contrastingly, he made another bold move and sold the name rights while his business was at its peak for he understood the business landscape better. Overall, the story is filled with ~~contrasted~~ ^{contrasted} and complementary sentiments.

Q No. 3 (5)

Text has successfully presented ~~a~~ ^{and his} true picture of Fareman's struggles to a great extent. Author has shared events from his life in a chronological order. At each step, be it success or defeat, it has been accompanied by reasonings and sentiments of that moment or phase. Fareman story is relatable for it shows the ups and down of one's life, followed by mistakes, lessons and growth. Moreover, it shows that success never happens overnight, it takes persistence, ability to recognize opportunities and decision-making that gets one going.

QUESTION NO 4:

- i. Most of the shelves in the library is empty.
Most of the shelves in the library are empty.
- ii. Chocolate or vanilla: which do you like best?
Chocolate or vanilla, which one do you like the best?
- iii. The culture of our country is richer than any other country in the world.
The culture of our country is the most richest in the world.
- iv. Ten mile are a long distance.
Ten miles is a long distance.
- v. He told us about the history of the school, the school curriculum, and a brief speech on his job as principal.
He told us about the school history, school curriculum and gave a brief speech on his job as a principal.

vi. She is one of the students who has passed competitive exams.
She is amongst the students who passed competitive exams.

vii. The student has written a 20-pages report last night.
Student wrote a 20-pages report last night

viii. Learning to play piano requires a lot of efforts.
Learning to play piano requires a lot of effort.

QUESTION NO. 5 (A)

Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip," said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire", replied Bill Gates, "And I am the son of a poor carpenter. That is why, it is often said, 'Never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher'."

QUESTION NO. 6

(c) Peel, Pique

While she was on her way to the guest room, she heard a loud coming from a room, so she stopped and peeked inside it.

She piques my interest whenever she talks about her greatest invention.

(v) Steal, sheer

With sheer determination and commitment, she kick-started her career.

(ii) Flounder, Founder

Quaid-e-Azam is the founder of Pakistan.

(iii) Voracious, Veracious

Her voraciousness brought her as many struggles as victories.

He paid for his voraciousness later on in life as QUESTION NO 6(B) he encountered many health problems.

(iv) ^{wall} ^{house}
Tired from she layed on the floor like a dead wood.

(viii)

Like a shrinking violet, she is losing strength and energy with each passing day.

(vi) Billionaires get to act all fat and cassy for morals and principles are inherited by middle class men and women only.

(v) With some more embellishments here and there, we'll give this deess ~~the~~ a midas touch.

Q No 7 Translation

An African thinker once said and I quote, "When Britishers came to Africa, they had science and we had land. They started saying that we have come here to give you prosperity. When we opened our eyes, we had science and they had our land. Likewise, when social network science came, they had facebook and whatsapp. They said it's ~~free~~ free of cost. We closed our eyes and by the time we opened it, we had facebook and whatsapp and they had our freedom and personal information. Therefore, when something is free of cost you have to pay for it with your freedom."

QUESTION NO 5 (B)

- i. He poured the water in the glass.
- ii. The government has rided away difficulties.
- iii. The people were driven to despair by the horrors of war.

iv. His success cannot be credited for by anyone.

v. There were lots of shops in the main street.

vi. The thief has run away with some money.

vii. He wrote them a check of $1000.

viii. A grey macintosh was folded on her arm.