Translation:

Once an African philosopher said that when Britishers arrived on their land, they were empty-handed and we had the land. They started saying, "we are here to give you freedom." We closed our eyes and in the blink of that, we were the ones who had nothing and they had our land. Likewise, when social ^{networking science} media came into genesis, there they had Facebook and whatsapp. They said, "It is for free." We closed our eyes and when we opened it, we had Facebook and whatsapp while they had our freedom.

and personal information. Hence, whenever something is for free, in order to pay for it, we have to sacrifice our freedom.
