

Areej Farooq

LMS ID 33581

Batch 53

MOCK EXAM 6

English (Precis And Composition)

Part - II

Q No 2.

Make a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Title:

Bad Image of Pakistan Towards Western Countries.

OR

Difficulties in Visa For Western Countries.

Precis:

Pakistani citizens applying ^{visa} for Schengen countries is similar to preparing for high-profile event. Their remarks on Pakistani's seems like teacher dismissed student's exam without reading it. On the other hand, if western citizen seeks Pakistani visa we roll out red carpet. Pakistani spent half of energy in paying visa fees and submitting document still they think they will cause disturbance. Schengen countries needs to realize Pakistani are humans too. not dangerous beings. they will understand this when they stand in line for Pakistani visa somewhere.

Total Words: 213

Reeds Words: 86

Q no 3
Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Questions:

1. What were the reasons behind Foreman transition from boxing to business?

A The reasons behind Foreman transition from boxing to business is that when he was retired he run short of money for that he came back in boxing but not as revived image. He came back in boxing with a new personality people started liking him.
During that time he was offered business he ignored it. But his wife insisted him to join business. So, he joined business and became famous in business as well. Therefore, in such a way these were reasons behind Foreman transition from boxing to business.

What was the competitive advantage of George Foreman Grill?

The competitive advantage of George Foreman Grill was that he sold naming rights for an unbundling of $137.5 million. Foreman understood a crucial principle that it is important to know when to get in and importantly know when to get out. Competition was increasing and market was becoming saturated. So he took advantage and sold it in a max price before it goes towards loss. Therefore, selling business in a highest possible amount was competitive advantage of George Foreman Grill.

2. What would have happened if Foreman had not sold the name rights?

A. The Foreman Grill had sold his name rights because he was aware of the time when to get out from the business. At that time competition was increasing and market was becoming saturated. So he took wise step and sold the name rights in a worthy amount. If Foreman had not sold the name right he would loss more ~~the~~ later on. So, for avoiding greater loss he sold the name rights. Therefore, he sold name right to avoid greater loss later on.

4. What kind of contrasted and complementary sentiments are evoked in this story?

A: There were many different kind of contrasted and complementary sentiments are evoked in this story. Firstly, when Foreman got retired and spent his money and ^{have} no work and he came back in boxing with new personality. Secondly, After his championship he moved to business and taking wise decision of selling name rights it was complementary. Therefore, when he reinvented and get out from business it was contrasted and complementary sentiments in this story.

5. How far is the text successful to present the true picture of Foreman and his struggle?

A: The text was successful to present the true picture of Foreman and his struggle. It depicts that how at the peak of his boxing ~~career~~ career he got retirement then after ^{that} money issues and no work lead him back to boxing. It also changed his personality. Later, on, business opportunities he got and his wise decision of taking signing off from business by selling name rights.

Q No 4

i. Correct any five of the following.
Most of shelves in the library is empty.

Most of shelves in the library are empty.

ii. Ten mile are a long distance.

Ten mile is a long distance.

iii. She is one of the student who has passed competitive exams.

She is one of the students who has passed competitive exams.

iv. Learning to play piano requires a lot of efforts.

Learning to play piano require a lot of efforts.

v. The student has written a 20-pages report last night.

The student have written a 20-pages report last night.

Q No 5

A. Punctuate the following passage.
Punctuation:

Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip", said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire", replied Bill Gates. "And I am the son of a poor carpenter". This is why it is often said, "Never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher".

B. Rewrite the following sentences after filling in the blanks with appropriate prepositions.

- i. He poured the water in the glass.
- ii. The government has tided with difficulties.
- iii. There were lots of shops in the main street.
- iv. He wrote them a cheque of $1000.
- v. A grey mackintosh was folded around a her arm.

Q No 7.
Translate the following into English, keeping in view the idiomatic/figurative expression.
Translation:

Once African founder said when English-man came to Africa that they have estate and we have land.

They said they came here to give progress to them. We closed our eyes.

When we opened our eyes we have Jiddat and they have our land.

Similarly, when social network science came, they have Facebook and whatsapp.

They said its free. We closed our eyes when we opened our eyes then we have facebook and whatsapp and they have our freedom and our personal information. Therefore, whenever something is free we have to pay cost of our freedom for that thing.