Topic: Rejection of Schengen Visa
for Pakistani Citizens

Visa rejection of Pakistani citizens by Schengen countries seems like unwelcoming event. The reason for rejection by these states is perception of Pakistan's people, who actually wanted to pursue their dreams. Contrarily, Western citizens receive great hospitality from Pakistan. While all energy of Pakistani citizens is spent on complex visa process, Schengen countries view them as problem creator. These states need to change their perception as one day they might face difficulty to get Pakistani visa.

Q7

Once an African historian said, when English men came Africa, they had technology while we had our land. They said that ~~they~~ ^{we} they are here for development. We accepted their offer immediately but realized later we exchanged our land in return. Likewise, with the advent of internet, they had Facebook and Whatsapp. They said it is for free which we accepted immediately. However, now we have access to Facebook and Whatsapp in return for our personal data. Hence, whenever there is a free lunch, its price is paid with freedom.
