

NAME : BUSHRA ISHFAQ

BATCH : 137

Question no: 02

Answer:

“How Schengen Countries Treat Pakistani Citizens”

Schengen countries reject visa applications from Pakistani citizens by making lame excuses. Their response often suggests that Pakistani citizens are suspicious people. It is just like a teacher who fails a student without reading its paper. While if Western citizen seeks a Pakistani visa, they are treated with best hospitality. A large amount of money and energy of Pakistani citizens get wasted for paying visa fees and submitting endless documents. Schengen countries should realize that Pakistani citizens are human too, not aliens. However, they will understand this when someday, they will stand in the line for Pakistani visa.

Word Count:

Words of Passage: 210

Words of Previs: 75 (±5)

Suggested Title: “Visa Difficulties for Pakistani Citizens Vs Schengen Countries”

Question no: 03

Part (1):-

George Foreman was the undefeated champion. After retirement, he was broke with no money and no work. People started criticizing him as "too old". He ignored them and embraced his cheerful personality. He showcased his love for cheese burger. He became a preacher and a man who brought his family together over burgers. This authenticity led to an unexpected business opportunity.

Part (2):-

George Foreman Grill had a unique design that allowed grease to drain off one side. It's competitive advantage is recorded commercials featuring Foreman cooking burgers surrounded by his children, emphasizing family and fun rather than the product itself.

Part (3):-

If Foreman had not sold the name rights, he would have a big loss in the business. This is because competition was increasing, and the market was becoming saturated. Therefore, it was the perfect time to step away.

Part (4):-

This story of Foreman is more than boxing or business. Many sentiments are evoked in this story. It is about resilience, reinvention, and understanding that from where true success comes. It does not come just from fame, but from using that fame wisely.

Part (5):-

The text successfully presents the true picture of Foreman and his struggle. It truly depicts the struggle made by Foreman and the sentiments involved in it. One can easily get motivation from this story and can understand the true way of success.

Question no: 04

- (i) Most of the shelves in the library are empty.
- (iv) Ten mile is a long distance.
- (vi) She is the student who has passed competitive exams.
- (vii) The student has written a 20-page report last night.
- (ii) Chocolate or vanilla : which do you like more?

Question no: 05

(A) :-

Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop; when the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one-dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip," said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire", replied Bill Gates, "and I am the son of a poor carpenter". This is why it is often said, "Never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher".

(B) :-

- (i) He poured the water into the glass.
- (iii) The people were driven of despair by the horrors of war.
- (v) There were lots of shop in the main street.
- (vii) He wrote them a cheque of $1000.
- (iv) His success cannot be cried out by anyone.

Question no: 06

(B) :-

(ii) hang up one's hat :

Ali hang up his hat after getting Gold Medal.

(iv) dead wood :

He is like a dead wood after his mother's death.

(vi) fat and sassy :

He is fat and sassy like his friend.

(vii) as full as a tick :

After eating all food, he became as full as a tick.

(viii) shrinking violet :

Usually people with shrinking violet are greedy.

Question no: 07

An African scholar once said that when European came Africa, they had courage and we had land. European said that we came here to make you progress. We closed our eyes. When eyes were open, we had courage and they had our land. Similarly, when social network science evolved, they had facebook and whatsapp. They said, "it is free". We closed our eyes and when eyes were open, we had facebook and watsapp, and they had our freedom and personal information. Whenever anything is free, we have to pay its cost in the form of our freedom.