

PART - II

Q-2

PRÉCIS WRITING

Pakistani Citizens apply for Schengen visa only to ~~be~~ have their applications rejected without even a justifiable reason. This is totally opposite to the way Pakistan treats a western citizen seeking visa. Maybe the difference lies in thought process of perceiving the Pakistani citizens. Schengen countries fear that Pakistani citizens will cause distress across Europe which is completely wrong. They need to understand that Pakistanis are just as human as any other nationality. (72 words)

Title :- The ill perception of Pakistani people.

Q-7

TRANSLATION

~~A thinker~~ An African thinker once said that when the English came to Africa, they had the innovation and we had the land. The British said they came to develop Africa. And we blindly believed them. When we came back to our senses, we had the advancement and they had our land. Similarly,

When social network science came, they had Facebook and WhatsApp. They said it was free.

We blindly believed them and later realized they took our freedom and personal information in return of WhatsApp and Facebook. Thus, whenever something is free, the cost is our independence.

Q-4

SENTENCE CORRECTION

i- Most of the shelves in the library are empty.

ii- Chocolate or vanilla: which do you like better?

vii- The student wrote a 20-pages report last night

iv- Ten miles is a long distance

vi- She is one of the students who have passed the competitive exams.

viii- Learning to play piano requires a lot of effort.

Q-5 (A)

PUNCTUATION

Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop.

When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar.

"Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip," said the waiter.

"She is the daughter of a billionaire," replied Bill Gates, "And I am the son of a poor carpenter." This is why it is often said; never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher.

Q-5 (B)

PREPOSITIONS

- i- He poured the water into the glass.
- iv- His success cannot be cried off by anyone.
- v- There were lots of shop on the main street.
- vi- The thief has run away with some money.
- vii- He wrote them a cheque for $1000.
- viii- A grey mackintosh was folded on her arm.

Q-6 (A)

SENTENCES

i) Peek, Pique.

Peek: She took a quick peek through the keyhole to see if anyone was inside.

Pique: - The puzzling remark was enough to pique his interest in the conversation.

iiB- Voracious, Veracious

Voracious: The voracious reader finished the novel in just one night.

Veracious: The witness provided veracious testimony recounting the events of the crime with honesty and accuracy.

iv - Tortuous, Torturous

Tortuous: The mountain road was tortuous filled with hairpin bends and sharp curves.

Torturous: The prisoner endured torturous pain but didn't confess.

vi - Discrete, Discreet

Discrete: The data was divided into discrete categories for easier analysis.

Discreet: The detective was discreet in his inquiries.

Q.6 (B)

ii) Hang up one's hat

After a long career of 40 years, the actor decided to hang up his hat and retire.

iii) Eat crow

The politician had to eat crow after his policy predictions turned out to be completely wrong.

vi) Fat and sassy:

She felt fat and sassy about her exam preparations.

vii) As full as a tick:

After the hi tea buffet, he was <sup>as</sup> full as a tick so he skipped dinner.

viii) Shrinking Violet

She seems like a shrinking violet, but she is incredibly confident during class presentations.

Q-3

COMPREHENSION

1)

The reasons behind Foreman's transition from boxing to business were his authenticity that brought opportunity, to keep money running in and his instincts. At the age of 45 he reinvented himself, his lighthearted personality and authentic self brought him unexpected business opportunity. With his strategic instincts he earned over $1 million per month in royalties.

2)

The competitive advantage of the George Foreman Grill was its monopoly in the market. The grill was of a unique design and with the right marketing it became a household name, selling millions of units annually.

3)

If Foreman had not sold the name rights, he might have been in a loss, again or worse broke again. The competition was increasing and market was becoming saturated which means Foreman didn't have its competitive advantage anymore.

4)

The story evokes the contrasted sentiments such as the despair of financial troubles troubles against the joy of Foreman's successful comeback in boxing and then as businessman. It also highlights the criticism of his comeback dismissing him as "too old" to <sup>his</sup> ~~reclamation~~ of him becoming the oldest world heavyweight champion in history.

The story also evokes some complementary sentiments such as reinvention, resilience, wisdom, and strategic instincts. Foreman's success after the financial downfall both inside and outside the ring as business man is inspiring.

5)

The ~~sa~~ text successfully captures a true picture of Foreman's struggles. From falling down the financial struggles, to facing mockery on boxing comeback to ~~winning~~ proving the critics wrong by winning the championship, and getting over the financial downfall by becoming a successful businessman, the text completely portrays it all. It presents Foreman as not just a legendary boxer, but also a wise businessman and a loving family man.