Explain in detail Khilafat Movement. Also shed light on reasons of its failure.

1- Background of Khilafat Movement :-

Britain and its allies became victorious as a result of Khilafat of the First World War (1914-1918). Behaviour of allies during the Khilafat world war and their arrogant proclamations made muslim apprehensive about their future designs. Muslims feared that Allied powers will take over Turkish Empire and distribute parts of it among themselves. Khilafat Movement was initiated in India to protect the Khilafat of Turkish Empire, which was a symbol of muslim unity.

2- Important Events of Khilafat Movement :-

2.1 Establishment of Khilafat Committee :-

In order to launch an organized mass movement Khilafat Committee was made in 1919.

2.2 Hindu Muslim Unity and Non-Cooperation :-

In 1919 Indian National Congress decided to support the Muslims on the Khilafat issue. Gandhi brought forward a programme of non-cooperation with government.

2.3 Khilafat Delegation :-

In 1920, Maulana Muhammad Ali Johar led a delegation and went to London to British government. British government, however, did not paid much attention to the delegation.

2.4 Non-Cooperation Movement :-

All India non-cooperation movement was observed on August 1, 1920. Gandhi was the leader of non-cooperation movement. As part of non-cooperation movement many government servants resigned, courts were boycotted and students boycotted educational institutions. Apart from this, many British title holders surrendered their title as well.

2.5 Civil Disobedience :-

In 1921, the people were given a call to break the laws and disobey the government. People refused to pay the taxes etc. About twenty thousand people were arrested as a result of this call.

3- Reasons for the failure of Khilafat Movement :-

3.1 Mopla Uprisings :-

Moplas were a muslim community settled in ~~not~~ southern India. They claimed themselves to be Arab traders. A dispute broke out between Moplas and Hindu lords of the area in 1921. This incident provided an opportunity to Britishers to create a rift between Indian Muslims and Hindus.

3.2 Chera Cheri Incident :-

In year 1922, a mob at Chera Cheri put the police station on fire. In this incident at least twenty-one police men died. This event was a great setback to Khilafat Movement.

3-3 Civil disobedience called off:-

When Gandhi called off the civil disobedience movement by stating the movement was deviated from its original path of non-violence. He called off the movement when Khilafat Movement was at its peak. It's caused a blow to Khilafat movement.

3-4 Abolition of Turkish Khilafat:-

When Atatürk came to power he abolished the Khilafat institution in 1923. The event completely destroyed the Khilafat movement of India.

4- Consequences of Khilafat Movement:-

As a consequence of Khilafat movement Muslims of sub-continent became politically aware that had to get rid of British rule and strive for an independent homeland. Moreover, as a result of Khilafat movement, the trust of people grew on moderate leaders such as Quaid-e-Azam and Allama Iqbal.
