

Q5 A. Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip," said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire," replied Bill Gates, "and I am the son of a poor carpenter." This is why it is often said, "never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher."

Q5 B (i) He poured the water into the glass.

(v) There were lots of shops on the main street.

(vi) The thief has run away with some money.

(vii) He wrote them a cheque for $1000.

(viii) A grey mackintosh was folded in her arm.

Q6 A (i) Peek: Ali took a peek inside his bag in search of his geometry box.

Pique: The boss was piqued when his assistant could not find the file.

(ii) Flounder: He floundered on the beach.

Founder: Quaid-e-Azam is the founder of Pakistan.

(v) Shears: The farmer sheared the sheep.
Sheers: After passing the exam he felt sheer happiness.

(vi) Discrete: Analog systems use discrete values.

Discreet: The speech missed out the discreet parts.

(vii) Quaint: Old village homes are now quaint.

Queers: Queers are considered an important part of LGBTQIA people.

Q 6 (B) (i) Hang up one's hat: His unemployed friend hung up one's hat on his home.

(iv) Dead wood: The aid by the company was considered as dead wood.

(v) Midas touch: The new Finance Minister is seen to have Midas touch.

(vi) Fat and Sassy: He came as fat and sassy from the vacation abroad.

(viii) Shrinking violet: She became shrinking violet when it was time for her speech.

Q7. Translation

Once an enlightened African mentioned that when British arrived in Africa, they had knowledge whereas Africans had land. They mentioned that they came here to help with progress of the area. With our guard down, the British reversed the roles. Just like that, when social media applications arrived, they gave it for free. Once again, the roles reversed. Now they had our information and freedom via Facebook and Whatsapp. So, whenever something is free, it <sup>is</sup> ~~has~~ at the cost of our freedom.

Q4. (i) Most of the shelves in the library are empty.

(iv) Ten miles is a long distance.

(vi) She is one of the students who passed competitive exams.

(vii) The student wrote a 20-page report last night.

(viii) Learning to play the piano requires a lot of effort.

Q2.

Title: Misuse of Authority

via Schengen Process

The Schengen visa application process is tough for Pakistan. It is like displaying a person's goal inside documentation. At many times, this documentation scrutinized. However, if a Western country citizen wants a visa, it is granted with ease. Criticism by Western travellers is considered okay. The mistrust in Schengen policy might be due to fear of law and order by Pakistan. However, times do change and when it is Pakistan's time to shine, the West might go through this process as well.

Q3. Comprehension

- ① Foreman lost a legendary match to Muhammad Ali and retired. Due to bad spending habits he got broke. The next time he joined boxing, he saved the winning amount and humbly invested in business to avoid bankruptcy.

② It had a good design. The side of the grill made it easy to drain the grease off. Moreover, it was advertised by George Foreman himself in exchange for a profit of 40%.

③ The business was becoming competitive. It would end in the market being saturated and less money being made. So, Foreman took out his profit while there was still time.

④ At first, Foreman was enjoying his life casually. When broke, he got to experience hardships. Once again he climbed the ladder of success but this time he made a good life outside the ring too.

⑤ The text explains clearly that it is the vision of a person to be successful. Timing matters in all aspects of life. The right time to join or quit makes the difference for a person.