

Q. NO. 4

1. Introduction:

"Poverty is the mother of all evils" undoubtedly, poverty and unemployment enormously contributed in the spread of crimes. Poverty and unemployment are promoting organized crime, terrorism, violence and weak social structure. These can be eliminated through economic reforms, public private partnerships, institutional reforms and community development.

2. Impacts of unemployment and poverty on crime rates in Pakistan:

2.1

Organized crime is being produced

High unemployment rates make individuals vulnerable to recruitment by syndicates. This has pushed individuals to commit crime in Pakistan.

2.2

Prolonging terrorism:

Terrorist networks in Pakistan such as BLR, TTP and BLF have been contributing to recruitments.

Sir, please tell me proper criminology attempting techniques. I am fully confused.
