

Question 2:

Elucidate the doctrine of Tauheed in Islam.

Describe its importance in individual and collective life.

I. Introduction

"The starting point in Islam is this belief in the unity of God."

— Khurshid Ahmed

Tauheed is the cornerstone of Islam. It is the belief in the oneness of Allah. Tauheed has various types and impacts on both individual and collective life. On individual life, Tauheed induces accountability, gives meaning to life and invokes a sense of self-respect. Collectively, Tauheed has social, economic and political impacts.

II. Meaning of Tauheed

Tauheed comes from the root word 'wahada' meaning 'He made it one.'

Edward Lane's Lexicon on classical Arabic, says,

"He asserted, or declared God to be one."

In modern Arabic, "ya wahidu" means "to bring together.'

III. Definition of Tauheed

Tauheed has been defined by various scholars of Islam. Khurshid Ahmed defines it as,

"The concept of monotheism in Islam means that there is only one supreme leader of the Universe."

Tauheed, thus, is the belief in one Lord.

IV. Types of Tauheed

Tauheed can be categorized into three:

Ruboobiyah Unity in Action	Ilaahiyah Unity in Divinity	Asmaawal Sifat Unity in Attributes
-------------------------------	--------------------------------	---------------------------------------

A. Ruboobiyah : Unity in Action

This is the belief that Allah is One and Unique in His Actions, such as creation, sovereignty.

The Quran says,

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ خَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ

"There is no god except Him, The Creator of all things." (al Quran)

B. Uloohiyah: Unity in Divinity

Uloohiyah is the belief that

Allah alone is worthy of worship through one's actions. This is the core message of all prophets.

As the Quran mentions Hud saying,

اعبُدُ اللَّهَ مَا لَمْ مِنَ الْغَيْرِ

"Worship Allah, you have no God

other than Him." (al Quran)

C. Al Asma wal Sifaat : Unity in Attributes

This belief is the belief that you believe in the names and descriptions of Allah without any

Tahrif (Distortion), Ta'til (Suspension),

Takyif (Adaptation), or Tamtil (Liking)

لَمْ يَكُنْ لَّهُ شَيْءٌ

"There is nothing like Him." (al Quran)

V. Impacts of Tawheed on Individual Life

Tawheed has effects on the individual life of man. They are:

A. Tawheed Gives Meaning to Life

An issue of the people is a question about the existential crisis of human beings. People question about the purpose of life. When one begins to believe in the unity of Allah, he realizes the meaning and essence of life.

وَرَبُّنَا عَلَىٰ مُلْكِهِمْ إِذْ قَامُوا خَفَافِي
رَبِّنَا دَدَبَ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ

"And We strengthened their hearts, when they declared, 'Our Lord is the Lord of heavens and the earth'" (al Quran)

B. Tawheed Instills a Sense of Duty

When man believes in Allah, he is bound by the belief in being accountability. The Quran says "Then man is bound by 'نقير' (his neck) for his destiny. He, thus, obliges and remains accountable."

C. Inculcates Self-respect in Man

When man bows in front of Allah alone, he knows that there is no one else to be answerable to. He fears not the giants of the world. He is an esteemed creation, the "ashraf ul makloof". He is equal to his fellow being and needs not bowing in front of other humans.

VI. Impacts of Tauheed on Collective Life

Tauheed affects the collective life of mankind in the social, economic and political domains.

A. The Social Impacts

Tauheed gives a framework for brotherhood, equality and morality in a society. It makes a strong and integrated social fabric weaving love and respect in it.

وَالْتَّقُوا بِعَلِيِّ اللَّهِ جَمِيعاً وَلَا تَنْفَرُوا

"And hold firmly to the rope of Allah and do not be divided."

B. Economic Impacts of Tauheed

Tauheed shapes the economic domain of collective life. It says:

- If Allah is ﷺ, then also الـهـدـل (the just)
- If He is المـالـق (The creator), then also الـمـعـاـب (the Giver of All).
- If He is الـمـاـكـ (The ruler), then also الـمـيـثـ (The One Who gives wealth abundantly).

C. Political Impacts of Tauheed

Tauheed influences Islamic political thought and, therefore, leads to good governance.

One also learns the legitimacy of authority by adhering to Tauheed.

VII. Conclusion

In conclusion, Tauheed is the first step towards Islam. It is the unquestionable belief in the unity of Allah. It changes individual life by making him satisfied with his life, giving him self-esteem and making him accountable. In collective life, it influences the social, economic and political fabric of the Muslim community.

Question 4:

Salat is the basic pillar of worship in Islam. Analyze its social, moral and spiritual effects.

I. Introduction

Salat (prayer) is a fundamental worship that all Muslims offer on a daily basis. It is offered at various times and has distinct categories. Salat affects man's spiritual part by bringing stability of mind, checks indecency and purifies one soul. Morally, it works as a biological clock, fosters a culture of respect, and aids in character building. Socially, it creates an ideal community, fosters political cooperation, and promotes social cohesion. Salat is I'tibari, a religious act with worldly implications.

II. Meaning and Definition of Salat

Salat comes from the root word J-U-W-g meaning "to link together." It also means "prayer" when considered from root word g-J-U-W.

Salat is the Arabic for prayer; the Indo-Iranian call it "Namaz."

Salah can be defined as the act of remembrance of Allah, or man faces the Kaaba during prescribed times.

It includes:

- Farz - The obligatory prayers
- Wajib - Next to obligation
- Sunnah - Additional voluntary prayer by Prophet
- Nafl - The supererogatory prayers.

III. The Social Impacts of Salah

Salah has social impacts in the following forms:

A. It Establishes An Ideal State

When a man performs salah, and when the community offers prayers, it becomes the esteemed Muslim community.

The Muslim Ummah is an uplifted one that does good and forbids evil.

تَمُورُنُ بِالْمُحْسَفِ وَتَنْهُونُ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ

" You encourage good, and forbid evil. " (al Quran)

B. Salah Brings Political Cooperation

The social fabric is further strengthened when the Ummah cooperates politically.

Mosques have been a unifying place.

The Imam of a Muslim state who happens to be the Qazi (governor) gives his sermon in the mosque.

Example:

During the Arab Spring, people, particularly in Egypt manifested mosque as the political centre as they rose against the tyrant government.

C. The Congregational Prayers and Social Cohesion

Muslims meet collectively at least five times a day. There, they can exchange thoughts of not only religious matter but also worldly ones. Moreover, they come closer and remain updated about one another, becoming "the 'Ummah like one body." As prophet (PBUH) said.

IV. Moral Impacts of Salat

Salat plays a significant role in shaping one's morality.

A. Salah Works as a Biological Clock

When man offers salah in prescribed times, his body becomes disciplined making him punctual in daily life. It makes one align his other works at a divinely set time which the Quran calls كتاباً موقتاً "The appointed times."

B. Salah fosters patience and perseverance

If man lives a life following the prescribed prayers, he learns patience and perseverance. He realizes that it is in persistency that gives فلاح (success). It is salah through which one makes dua and has his fate changed. The Quran mentions Quran and salah together:

واستعينوا بالله وبالصلوة

"And seek help through patience and prayer."

C. Salah Aids in Character Building

Prayers helps one in character building. It makes man a better person. The Quran mentions me who offer namaz are the better people. Distinguishing people of good character, the Quran say:

الا مصلين . الذين هم على صلوٰتهم
داشون

" Except those who pray consistently performing their prayers."

V. Spiritual Impacts of Salah

prayer enlightens one's spirituality in the following way:

A. Fosters Stability of mind and Heart

Salah brings stability of mind and heart. It brings peace and ease in life. Holy Prophet (PBUH) once told Bilal (RA):

"Get up Bilal, call the people to prayer, and make us feel relaxed."

B. Salat Brings One Closer to Allah

Namaz elevates the man and takes him closer to Allah. It uplifts his spirit and entire being. Through Salat, man connects to God.

الصلة المحرّة المطمئنة

"Salat ascends the believers."

(Hadith)

This is ascent towards God.

C. Salat Purifies the Soul

Salat has been equated with the purification of soul. For this matter, the Quran says

"Surely Allah loves those who turn to Him, and He loves those who purify themselves." (through Abû Hâim)

VI. Conclusion

To conclude, Salat is an integral pillar of Islam. It weaves cohesion in the society, builds one spiritually and uplifts one's moral standing. Salat completes a mankind.

Question 5:

Elaborate the concept of Good Governance and its principles in Islam in the light of the era of Pious Khalifa.

I. Introduction

The concept of good governance is as old as Islam. From the very beginning how people are governed has had an important weightage. Islamic governance is more inclusive than modern governance. The pious caliphs, after having established the Islamic state ruled the region such that it set a precedent for times to come. Its principles are what is called good governance in modern times.

II. Good Governance in Islam

Islam emphasizes on ruling the ruled in a just manner. The Quran emphasizes on man being نَّبِيٌّ فِي الْأَرْضِ - "a vicegerent on earth." He thus has the responsibility to rule the people in a just manner establishing good governance.

Question 6:

Discuss the status and role of Women in Islam. How Islam ensures their rights in various spheres of Life. Elucidate

i. Introduction

خلقکم من نفس واحدة ثم جعل منها زوجا

"He created you from a single soul, then from it He made its mate." (al Quran)

The Quran equates all mankind and, thus, give them equitable status and role. The practices of Holy prophet (PBUH) also emulate the status of women at a revered position. Islam also ensures the rights of women in various spheres of life - beginning from childhood to her death, and gives her economic, political and social rights.

ii. Status and Role of Women in Islam contrary to the Western perspective, the women in Islam have more freedom and rights than they presume and they themselves have. Women are acknowledged as complete persons, get their rights as a child, wife and mother.

A. Women in the West : A comparative Analysis

The women in other religions and particularly the west claim that they have more rights. The ground realities pose a different picture. JS Mill, in 'The Subjection of women' writes,

"the wife is the actual bond-servant of her husband."

Islam, on the other hand, says both men and women came from one soul, making them equal.

B. Women in Islam : Acknowledgment of complete personhood

11 centuries before the "A Vindication of the Rights of Women"

Islam acknowledged the complete personhood of women. Other religions, for instance Christianity blame women for errors. In Christianity, Eve is declared guilty for eating the forbidden fruit. However, Islam attributes the fault of due to the person.

فَغَوِيَ نَبِيُّنَا، فَعَصَمْ

"So Adam disobeyed his Lord and erred." (al Quran)

C. Rights of Woman As a child

Islam sternly prohibits maltreatment of a girl child. The holy prophet (PBUH) said,

"Whoever has a daughter and he does not bury her alive, does not insult her, and does not favor his son over her, God will enter her into paradise."

D. Rights of Woman as a wife

The woman as a wife or wife-to-be has rights in Islam.

- She has the right to select spouse on her volition.
- Right to mahr
- Right for divorce (Khula).
- Right to be protected (Qiwama)

E. Rights of Woman as a Wife/Mother

Islam uplifts a woman by giving her an esteemed position

The Quran says,

"Be grateful to me and your parents."

The prophet said:

"Paradise is beneath her feet."

III. Rights of Women in Various Aspects of Life

Islam gives women their due rights in all aspects of life. In other places, these rights are given by the state and, therefore, reversible. The rights that women get in Islam are from Allah. But, no one can take these rights away.

A. The Social Aspect of Women Rights in Islam

Socially, a woman is accepted and respected in Islam. She is given her due rights. If she is preyed asked for veil, men are also told to lower their gaze.

B. The Economic Aspects of Women Rights In Islam

Rights In Islam

Muhammad Qutb writes, "that Islam

"recognized an independent status of women and gave her the right to own, use it and enjoy it in her own right."

Islam gives women independent ownership, right to employment also supported by Abu Hanifa and at Tabari. Most importantly, she has the right to inherit.

C. The Political Aspect of Women Rights

In Islam

According to At-Tabari, a woman can claim political leadership.

Pakistan was the first Muslim majority country to have a female prime minister.

Once a woman argued with Umar (RA), he announced in front of people,

"A woman is right and Umar is wrong."

IV. Conclusion

In conclusion, Islam gives an esteemed status to woman. Her role in an Islamic set up is significant. She is respected as a mother, wife and child. Moreover, she has social, economic and political rights.
