An African thinker once told when the British came to Africa they had advancement and we heard Land. They told "we are here to develop you"; ~~but~~ we closed our eyes. When we awake we saw innovation advancement with us and Land with them. Similarly in the era of social networks, they told us that facebook and whatsapp are free, we closed our eyes. and after opening eyes we saw facebook and whatsapp with us at the price of our freedom and personal information. So we always pay with our freedom for things free of cost.

whenever something is free, we end up paying for it with our freedom.
