

Name: Muqaddas Jamil

30/80

Part - II

Q. No 2

Title :- Worth of Pakistani Visa

06/20

The Visa Dilemma of Schengen Countries for Pakistanis

The Schengen countries reject Pakistani citizens' visa. It is similar to preparing for an event and getting no entry for clothes. Its application is like presenting the dreams to world. Their response being delaying the process makes it feel like it is a mystery; like the teacher without checking the paper fails the student.

Avoid examples

However, Western citizens get Pakistani visa easily and respectfully. Moreover, they are presented with best food and culture.

Also, they remarks negatively about the problems of country. Schengen countries think Pakistanis will

General Instructions

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

Your passage reflect the original idea

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

It is not the narration do precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

Overall idea is ok
Title needs improvement.
Grammar is ok.

half of energy is spent in applying and other in regretting. They should respect the identity of Pakistani citizens

Length of the answers is ok, 10/20
Avoid Repetition and irrelevant ideas
Avoid cutting

1) Foreman, a menacing boxer, switched to business due to multiple reasons. Firstly, he was defeated by Muhammad Ali after his 40 straight wins. He retired and was left with no money. Secondly, when he again became champion in his forties he gained a lot of fame which attracted business opportunity. Lastly, for his love for burgers together with fame, attract a company offering huge amounts for commercials.

2) According to the passage, "George Foreman Grill" was commercialised by himself using that product. He recorded his family making burgers with him, for he was a person of fame & a champion. Furthermore, the product had a unique design that allowed grease to drain off one side

Hence it became a household name.

3) It is opined in the passage that the competition was increasing for this business. If it were not sold by Foreman it would have subjected to loss. Because of the saturation in market Foreman realised it is crucial to step away to avoid further loss.

4) First of all, that the Foreman was champion initially. After his retirement following the defeat by Muhammad Ali he was broke with no money. Next depicts the optimism of Foreman by reinventing himself in his championship. He shifted his personality from boxer to cheerful and light-hearted person and then becoming a successful businessman.

5) The text is successful in presenting the true picture of Foreman and his struggle. After his retirement, due to lack of planning and uncontrolled spending he came to zero with no money. Additionally, he was mocked when he started his career again.

He did not pay heed to any pessimistic thought and carried on.

He was offered a business opportunity which he made successful by his strategy. He commercialized himself and the business gained profit.

Ultimately, he stepped away from the business at right time as the market was becoming saturated.

Que NO 4

04/10

i) Most of the shelves in the library are empty.

ii) Which one do you like best?

Chocolate or vanilla: which do you like better?

iv) Ten miles is a long distance.

v) He told us about the history of the school, its curriculum and a brief speech on his job as principal.

vi) She is one of the students who has passed competitive exams.

Que NO 5

04/05

Part (A)

✓ Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop, when the waiter was taking the dishes away.

✓ Bill Gates tipped him one dollar.

✓ "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip", said the waiter.

✓ "She is the daughter of a billionaire", replied Bill Gates and I am the son of a poor carpenter. ✓ This is why it is often said,

✓ "Never forget your ^{past} because your past is your greater teacher." ✓

01/05

Part (B)

i) He poured the water into the glass.

ii) The government has tried against difficulties,

iii) The people were driven to despair by the horrors of war.

iv) His success cannot be credited on by anyone.

VI) The thief has run away ~~with~~ ~~thefting/stealing~~ some money

VIII) A grey mackintosh was ~~folded~~ ~~along~~ her alarm.

Que NO 7

05/10

An African philosopher once said that, when Britishers invaded Africa we had land and they had innovation. They told that we came here to make ~~you~~ prosper.
~~We closed our eyes. When we opened~~

Don't do this

We trusted blindly but after that they had our lands and we had innovation. Similarly, when social networking science emerged, they had facebook and whatsapp. They offered it free of cost. We trusted blindly and after realizing we had facebook and whatsapp while they had our freedom and private data. Thus, when something is ^{offered} free, it has

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word