

English Precis and Composition

Question 2

"The Drawbacks of Pakistani Passport"

The Visa Dilemma of Schengen Countries for Pakistanis

06/20

The rejection of visa application of Pakistani citizens by the Schengen countries is deplorable. The lengthy process of filling visa followed by petty remarks is as if a teacher neglects his student's exam without reading it. On the contrary, if any citizen from a western country applies for Pakistan's visa, they he is readily accepted and shown Pakistani hospitality. However, many European countries think Pakistani citizens will be a burden to their society but often fail to realize that these people have exhausted all their resources on paying exorbitant visa fees. Schengen countries need to give a second thought on this and realize when they have to go through the same process.

Avoid examples

Overall idea is ok

Title needs improvement

Grammar is ok.

General instructions

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

Your passage reflect the original idea

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

It is not the narration do precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

Question 3

part 1

The reason behind Foreman's transition from boxing to business is due to him being broke after his first retirement. This made

Sentence Structure

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively

Do not be irrelevant in your answer

Please enhance length of each answer

Read the passage carefully

1) ~~him realize it~~ something after his boxing career is finished. The authentic nature of him led to increase in his fan following. This eventually led him towards his first business venture.

part ii

1. The George Foreman Grill had a unique design

2. He used his name as a brand for Company

1) The competitive advantage of George Foreman Grill was due to various reasons. Firstly, showing his cheerful personality and his love for cheeseburgers which made him a huge fan following. Secondly, in the commercials of his grill he was shown cooking, surrounded by his children, which emphasized family and fun rather than the product. This eventually led his business into a success.

part iii

2) If George Foreman had not sold its naming rights it would have ended into a failure. Foreman, in his lengthy careers of boxing from early retirement to making a comeback, realized the importance of when to get in and when to get out. Moreover, the competition was increasing leaving less room for progression. So, ~~he eventually~~ under these circumstances he decided to sell its naming rights.

part iv

In this story there are many kinds of contrasted and complimentary sentiments. Firstly, George Foreman making a comeback after his first retirement and reinventing himself by showing his true personality to the media. Secondly, retiring the second time and starting a successful business venture. Finally, selling its naming rights showing that when to get out.

part v

This passage has eloquently explained George Foreman's career. From early retirement to making a comeback after facing financial hardships. Moreover, reinvention of himself which increased his fan following and leading him towards a successful business venture. More importantly is the fact of him realizing true success do not comes from fame, but from using that fame wisely.

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word

Question 7

04/10

An African thinker

A citizen of Africa once said when Englishmen came to our land they had technology and we had our land. They said to ~~them~~ that they are here to give ~~them~~ ~~freedom~~ success. We blindly trusted them. When we opened our eyes, we had technology and they had our land. Similarly, when social media network came, they had Facebook and Whatsapp and they said it is free. We again blindly trusted them and after opening our eyes we realized we had Facebook and Whatsapp and they had our freedom and privacy. ~~Similarly, whenever any thing~~ is free we have to pay the price ~~for of~~ ~~freedom~~ to get it.

whenever something is free, we end up paying for it with our freedom.