

General Instructions

- Precis should be one 3rd of original passage
- Your passage reflect the original idea
- Don't take direct sentences from the passage
- It is not the narration do precis
- Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

English (Precis and Composition)

18/80

QUESTION-2

The Visa Dilemma of Schengen Countries for Pakistanis

Title: Extraterrestrial beings; not allowed

The Schengen countries ^{often} reject Pakistani citizens' visa application. Applying for their visa is as if preparing for a worthy event and get rejected for not meeting their standards. Conversely, if a ^{country} Western citizen apply for a Pakistani visa, they easily get it. The

Don't use "I, we, our, us" in precis
It is blunder in precis

0/20

Schengen countries shut their doors on our face and we roll out ^{red} carpets for them. Pakistani citizens should be granted visa, too by the Schengen countries and they will understand this only when they step into our shoes.

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively

Do not be irrelevant in your answer

Please enhance length of each answer

Read the passage carefully

QUESTION-3

09/20

1. What were the reasons behind Foreman's transition from boxing to business?

George Foreman was a successful boxer. He announced his retirement but later rejoined boxing for money.

Avoid cutting

But during ~~at~~ this journey, he became a preacher.

and realized his authentic self. His authenticity led him towards success in business when started off signing advertising contracts. So, his calculated moves made him a successful businessman.

Q2: What was the competitive advantage of George Foreman Grill?

Foreman, when offered an advertising contract, demanded 40% of the profits for launching or branding the "George Foreman Grill" product.

By this, he not only commercialized the product but also featured himself and his family. So, "George Foreman Grill" earned him both fame and money, as it became a household name.

Q3: What would have happened if Foreman had not sold the name rights?

Foreman sold the name rights for about $137.5 million because he was aware of the fact that competition was increasing in the market. Because of the high competition, he could start losing customers and worth of his business, as the market was becoming saturated. Therefore, he Sold the name rights at the perfect time.

Q4: What kind of contrasted and complimentary sentiments are evoked in the story?

The contrasted sentiments evoked in the story are that of satisfaction vs regret and hope vs despair. Foreman satisfied from his fortune announced his retirement but later regretted on his decision. He was mocked by the people but he hopefully and determinately rejoined his profession. On the other hand, the complimentary sentiments can be that of determination, when Foreman started his business and at the right time courageously sold the naming rights.

Q5. How far is the text successful to present the true picture of Foreman and his struggle?

The text successfully presents the true picture of Foreman and his struggle as it starts with his success, then his downfall and then again his accomplishment after he realised how to use fame wisely. This is the reason that why he he got success both in boxing and business. Moreover, his resilience, determination and brilliant intellect explains the and overcomes the struggles of his life.

QUESTION - 4

04/10

(i) Most of the shelf in the library is empty.

(iv) Ten miles is a long distance.

(ii) Which do you like the best; chocolate or vanilla?

(vii) Last night, the student wrote a 20-pages report.

(vi) She is one of the students who passed the Competitive exams.

She is one of the students who have passed competitive exams.

QUESTION - 5

05/05

(A) Bill Gates, once had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a $5 tip," said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire," replied Bill Gates, and I am the son of a poor carpenter.

This is why it is often said: Never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher.

0/05

- (B) (i) He poured the water ^{into} ~~in~~ the glass.
- (ii) The government has tided ^{over} its difficulties.
- (v) There were lots of shop ^{along} by the main street.
- (vii) He wrote ^{for} them a cheque of $1000.
- (viii) A grey mackintosh was folded ^{over} in her arm

QUESTION 1