QNO.8 Write note on: a: Gerry mandering : refers to the districts boundaries to favora particular political party, group or incumbent The term originated in the Us during the early lath century, named for Elbridge Georg, a Massachusset governor, whose administration red ew dismict in a manner resembling a salamander to secure political advantage. The primary objective is to maximize the electoral Success of a specific group by either concentrating opposing votes into a few districts (a technique known as packing) or spreading them thinly across multiple districts to dilute their influence (racking). This process Significantly impact the balance of pour in legislature, undermine the fair representation. A notable example of alleged gerry mondering occured oluring the decimination process recending the 2018 General Election arious political parties and amalyst raised incerned about the configuration of constitutuencies following The 2017 census. Critics agreed that the boundaries were nanipulated to Cavor the ruling PMLN at the time.

Dog whistling refers to the use of coded language or subtle mensaging by politicians or public figures to convey a particular idea to a specific audience without explicitly stating it. The term is derived from a dog whistle, which emits a sount inaudible to humans but deterable by dogs. Sommarly in political or social content, dog whistles use phrases, symbols or rhetroic that resonates Strongly with a targeted group while remaining ambigious or benign to the broder rublic. n regions like Baluchistan on Sindh nrases like " provincial autonomy," or 'rights or local many be used to appeal to crunic or regionalist-Sentiments without openy Advocating separatism.

The emergence of hustim nationalism in the Sub-continent can be traced backed to the socio-economic conditions and then the ideological hadership of husting. Both factors continuated to the Hindu-Muslim: Separation creating a seperate home land for hustims, in 1947.

Socio-Political Conditions:

2- Decline in Muslim Power:

The decline of Mughal rule marked the end of muslim dominance in the Subcontinent leaving mustams politically magnatized. The rise of Brithish colonialism further evoded their influence while the Hindu majority began to gain political and economic dominance.

2. Hindu Dominance:

The socio-political morements of Hindu verivalist like the Arya Samaj enphasized Hindu Curtural syperiority arienating muslime movements like the Hindi-lider controversy (1867) further deepened the rift between the two communities.

3. Economic Disparity & Political Exclusion:

musions faced economic marginalization due to Brithigh policies that favored Hindus in trade, industry and civil services. Similarly the political acclusion of nursling, partition of Bongal (1905) and its reason in 1911 showed how Hindus opposed policies favorable to Muslins. A ole of Ideology and leadership.

1. Two Nation theory: The two nation theory arriculated by figures like Sirsyed and Alama Igbal provided the iduological foundations for Muslim Nationalism Sir Syed's Augarn Devement aimed at political and aucational upright of Muslims to Safe quard their identity and Allama Iqbal formally dalling for a seprate homeland in the Allahbad's address q 1930s. a muhammad Aci Jinnah 'wansformed musim nationalism into a political reality. Intially an advocated of Hindu Muslim Unity alused that Hindus and Mustins were like two River that could flow together but can rever merge. finally Islam served as the unifying jactor for Muslims. The idea of an lamic state resonated with the aspirations of Muslims, providing raeological consion movement

Disscuss with arguments the balance of QNO.6 power between Executive, legislature and judiciary prior and post 26th Amendment. The 26th Amendment to the constitution of Pakisian has significantly autered the balance of Power between the Recurive legislature and judiciang By willing judicial overreach as redefining the separation of owers, this amendment creates an imbalance favoring the executive and ligislature at the expense of judicial independence. Pre-26th Amendment: Judicial Activism and Sepration of Powers Judicial activism and Suo moto Powers: Before the 26th Amendment, the judiciary, particularly the Supreme court, played on assertive role in pakistan's governance. voilates the Article 10-A of Pakistan's constitution also relognizes the right to a fair trial.
The 26th Amendment has a gruficantly reshaped the balance of Power in pakistan by entancing the role of executive and legislative in judiciary. This has raised serious concern about Seperation of power curd judicial Independence by the futernational Court of Justice as well.
