

13/80 "Part - II"

Incomplete Paper

Q.NO.2:-

Make a precis of following passage and suggest a suitable title.

05/20

Pakistani citizens face a lot of discrimination, while applying for Schengen visa. They often face comments like their documents are incomplete, their bank balance is suspicious or they are not trustworthy.

Meanwhile, if a western citizens seeks a Pakistani visa, they are treated with great honour and hospitality. conversely, Schengen countries consider Pakistani citizens as a source of distress. Resultantly,

Pakistani citizens feel exhausted after receiving

Overall idea is ok

Title needs improvement.

Grammar is ok.

Work on Spellings

Avoid Cutting

visa: ~~on a lighter note~~, Schengen countries should treat Pakistani citizens more respectfully, because someday, roles can also be reversed.

General Instructions

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

Your passage reflect the original idea

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

It is not the narration do precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

Pakistani citizens Thrust for Schengen Visa.

The Visa Dilemma of Schengen Countries for Pakistanis

Q.No.3:-

1. What were the reasons behind Foreman's transition from boxing to business?

Foreman's transition from boxing to business was his way of reinventing himself.

His constant struggle in boxing career and lack of money paved way for this transition. Foreman's comeback in boxing as his trueself, connecting his fans, and his cheerful personality, helped him in being a successful business man.

2- What was the competitive advantage of George Foreman Grill?

The competitive advantage of George Foreman Grill was that people loved it more not because of the product, but because of the fun and love branding by Foreman. Foreman recorded commercials, featuring himself and his children, emphasizing on family and fun. This strategy proved to be brilliant.

Q3:

What would have happened if Foreman had not sold the name rights?

The selling of name rights, was a calculated move made by Foreman.

If Foreman would not have sold the name rights, he would have faced loss because market was becoming saturated and competition was increasing.

Foreman took a ~~right~~ wise decision, to exit on time.

Q4:

What kind of contrasted and complementary sentiments are evoked in this story?

This story has not only been Foreman's story of boxing or business, rather it is a story of resilience and journey to one's true self. This story highlights the perks of being

Write contrasted and complementary sentiments used in this real, genuine and loving. This story also evokes the sense that true success cannot only be defined as fame, but how to use this fame wisely.

Q5:

How far is the text successful to present true picture of Foreman and his struggle?

This text quite precisely depicts the success story and struggles of Foreman. They depict legendary career of Foreman as a boxing champion, his downfall and his transition to a successful businessman, all have been pictured clearly. The end note of resilience and reinvention, further added worth to the text.

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively
Do not be irrelevant in your answer
Please enhance length of each answer
Read the passage carefully