

Nawal Ashraf
Batch OB #065

English
Precis And Composition

General Instructions

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage

Your passage reflect the original idea

Don't take direct sentences from the passage

It is not the narration do precis

Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

Q.No. 2: Make a Precis:

05/20

Schengen countries decline pakistani visa applications on lame basis.

Applying for Schengen visa is a nightmare hearing rejection due to ^{trivial or vague reasons} incomplete documents, bank balance issue or ambiguous will.

Its like failing a student ^{without} ~~rej~~ checking his/her paper. In ^{Avoid examples}

Contradiction, western citizens are warmly welcomed. They think that Pakistani will create disturbance, instead they have been exhausted by submitting fees and documents. One day they will realise that Pakistani are also living beings.

The Visa Dilemma of Schengen Countries for Pakistanis
Title: Schengen Countries exhausting visa policies.

Overall idea is ok
Title needs improvement.
Grammar is ok.

Length of the answers is ok,
Avoid Repetition and irrelevant ideas
Avoid cutting

Date: 09/20

QNO.3:- Read the Passage
and Answer the Questions:

Q1: George Foreman was the undefeated champion, but in 1974 Muhammad Ali knocked him in boxing due to this loss he announced retirement because he ~~have~~ a lot of money. Due to lavish ~~expansis~~ ^{expenses} and no financial planning he came on road then he decided to get into boxing again there he was loved by fans due to his cordial behaviour but the criticism of commentators restrained him outside the ring and he became preacher father of twelve. His authenticity led him to unexpected business opportunity. He signed an advertising agreement and started business.

Q2: A struggling home appliances company offered an ad to Foreman with a product - a grill. The grill's unique design of grease separate room attracted Foreman. Company offered $500,000 but Foreman cut off the charges by 40% if they would name the product "George Foreman Grill."

Q3: Foreman sold the naming rights for $137.5m because he understood the principle: just as it is important when to get it in, it's equally important to know when to get out. He sold the naming rights because competition was getting harder and market was becoming saturated.

Q4: This story is full of contrasted and complementary sentiments. The proud feelings of being undefeated champion. The sad feeling of losing match to Muhammad Ali. Heart broken at the time of financial crisis. The confidence of reinvention, the feelings of being a successful business man are the mixed feelings and emotions.

Q5: This passage successfully told the whole life story of Foreman, from his undefeated success to loss. From heart-broken to confident again and became a successful businessman. This text described his biography very well.

Q No. 4.

Correct Any Five Sentences

- (i) Most of the shelves in the library are empty.
- (ii) Chocolate or vanilla; which do you like most?
- (iv) Ten miles is a long distance.
- (vi) She is one of the students who have passed the competitive exam.
- (iii) The culture of our country is richer than ~~any~~ ^{that} culture of any country in the world.

Q.No. 5.A: Punctuation

Bill Gates, once had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee she gives me a five-dollar tip", said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire", replied Bill Gates, "and I am the son of a poor carpenter." This is why it is often said: never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher.

B: Preposition.

- (i) He poured the water into the glass.
- (ii) The government has faced with difficulties.

(v) There were lots of shops at the main street.

(viii) A grey mackintosh was folded around her arm.

(vi) The thief has run away with some money.

Q.No. 6: Sentences

B :-

Dead wood Inflation has become a dead wood that can not be cured.

Q.No. 7 Translation

05/10

Once an African thinker said: when English came to Africa—brought innovation to our land. After the nightmare we saw that we remained empty handed they took-away our land. Similar is the case with social networking apps they offered free facebook and whatsapp apps at the cost of our freedom and privacy.

So keep in mind that ~~whenever~~ we have to pay the cost of freedom for any free offer.

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word