

The Agony of Schengen Visa

Visa Rejections: A Pakistani Perspective

24/80

The rejection of schengen visa application of Pakistani citizens has become new normal.

The rejection on grounds of interests is evident from unnecessary objections on documents as if one is preparing to deceive them.

In contrast, when citizens of Western countries apply for a Pakistani visa, they are welcomed warmly.

Whilst, when western countries citizens arrive in Pakistan, we welcome their perspectives on our national issues. Most

Q.1

The reasons behind the transition of Foreman from working to business include his instincts, and a greater offer of contract worth $ 500,000. Following both the reasons, he remained resolute and inventive thus switching his profession.

Q.2

Foreman attained 40% of profit as per his counter-offer. Moreover, he sold millions of units annually and earned over $ 7 million per month in royalties.

Thus, there were the competitive advantages of George Foreman Grill.

8.3

If Foreman had not sold the name rights, he would have incurred a huge loss. As he anticipated, that market was becoming saturated and it is clear that more suppliers means less demand for one supplier.

8.4

This motivating story shows the perseverance, consistency and determination of Foreman. It further reflects how one can switch his profession with utmost faith in his abilities. He also taught how fame should be used wisely. His prudence in selling share abruptly shows agility and astute consciousness in their field.

Q.5

This text is a true pictorial description of Foreman's struggle. It clearly depicts the prudent usage of skills and ideas.

However, this story lacks to point out the features of Foreman. In short, his insinuations are well articulated in comprehensive manner.
