

Precis and composition

- Precis should be one 3rd of original passage
- Your passage reflect the original idea
- Don't take direct sentences from the passage
- It is not the narration do precis
- Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

Title:- Schengen's visa denial is a trap for Pakistanis

The Visa Dilemma of Schengen Countries for Pakistanis

Precis:-

03/20

Getting a Schengen visa for Pakistani citizens feels like preparing for a big event, only for the host to reject you over something small. It's like packing your dreams in a file and showing them to the world making you feel like you've done something wrong they often say, "Your documents are unclear" or "Your intentions are unclear". In contrast, when a citizen from ~~Pakistan~~ <sup>or western</sup> Schengen country applies for a Pakistani visa, they've warmly welcomed, invited to enjoy the culture, food with a little

Avoid pronouns in Precis

Pakistani citizens in applying for Schengen visas, which often results in rejection based on trivial or vague reasons urging these countries to recognize that Pakistanis are human beings, not threats, and should be treated with respect and fairness.

Question # 03:-

09/20

1) George Foreman transitioned from boxing to business due to poor financial decisions after his retirement. He reinvented himself with a cheerful personality, which helped him attract business opportunities. His smart decisions in grill business, stemmed from leveraging his fame and understanding when to exit the market.

2) The competitive advantage was its unique design that allowed grease to drain off, promoting healthier cooking. Additionally, its ease of use and convenience

Teacher's Signature _____

A-ONE

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively

Do not be irrelevant in your answer

Day _____

Date _____
Please enhance length of each answer

Read the passage carefully

2 attracted a wide customer base. Foreman's personal branding and relatable commercials set it apart from other grills making it a household name.

3) At the peak of its success if Foreman had not sold the name rights, then there would have been a decline in sales, unsustainable profitability and a difficulty in maintaining growth in a crowded market.

4) The story contrasts failure and success highlighting Foreman's financial struggles and eventual comeback, by embracing his true self. It complements authenticity and success showing how embracing his true personality led to both personal and professional success.

5) The text successfully portrays his struggles highlighting his rise, financial downfall, and eventual comeback. It has clearly emphasized his resilience and ability to reinvent himself, both in boxing and business, offering an authentic picture of his journey.

Question # 04:-

10/10

1) Most of the shelves in the library are empty.

2) Chocolate or vanilla: which do you like better?

4) Ten miles is a long distance.

8) Learning to play <sup>the</sup> piano requires a lot of effort.

6) She is one of the students who have passed competitive exams.

Question # 05.

04/05

Bill Gates once had coffee at a coffee shop. When the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee, she gives me a five-dollar tip," said the waiter. "She is the daughter of a billionaire," replied Bill Gates, "and I am the son of a poor carpenter." This is why it is often said, "Never forget your past because your past is your greatest ~~strength~~ teacher."

Question no <sup>5</sup> B.A.

02/05

- 1) He poured the water in the glass.
- 2) The government has tidled over difficulties.
- 3) There were lots of shops along main street.
- 4) The thief has run away with some money.
- 5) His success cannot be cried up by anyone.
- 6) He wrote them a cheque of $1000.

Question # 6. A.

Voracious, Veracious.

She is a voracious reader, always gobbling books, and her veracious nature ensured that every fact she shares is accurate.

Make separate sentences for each word

Shear, sheer.

The shear devastation caused by the 1984 Bhopal gas tragedy still lingers, ~~with~~ with the sheer scale

Teacher's Signature _____

A-ONE

of the environmental disaster and loss of life.

Quaint, Queer:-

In the quaint streets of Venice, Italy, tourists are captivated by the canals and bridges, while the queer art scene provides a unique cultural experience beyond the usual tourist attractions.

Question # 6. B.

as full as tick:- After farewell dinner, I was as full as tick and could barely move from couch.

fat and sassy:- After taking a long vacation, she returned to work feeling fat and sassy, full of energy and ready to conquer the day.

eat crow:- He thought he was right all along, but when the truth came out, he had no choice but to eat crow.

hang up one's hat:- She has decided to hang up her hat and start a family in peaceful, rural area.

dead wood:- In order to stay competitive, it's important to get rid of dead wood in every organization.

Question # 07.

04/10

The African philosopher once said, that, "when Britishers came to Africa, they had modernity and we had land. They ~~started saying that~~ <sup>Avoid cutting</sup> said, "We've come here to develop you." We turned a blind eye. When we gained consciousness the we had modernity and they had our land. Similarly, when social networking science came into being so they had facebook and what's app. They said, "it's free of cost". We again turned a blind eye and upon gaining consciousness, we had facebook and what's app and they had an open access to our personal information and freedom of speech. So, whenever something is free, we have to pay its price by giving up our freedom.

Teacher's Signature _____

invented

A-ONE

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word