

Mock ~ 6

Precise

Q:02 Title : Schengen Visa : A Way To Escape

The Visa Dilemma of Schengen Countries for Pakistanis

06/20

European countries reject the Schengen-visa applications of Pakistani nationals on the basis of their misconception and suspicions about identity and motives of Pakistanis. Such attitude makes anyone feel uncomfortable who just want to fulfill the dreams by this visa.

Overall idea is ok
Title needs improvement
Grammar is ok.

if some European-national wants a Pakistani visa, he is welcomed wholeheartedly.

But, European countries think that a Pakistani immigrant will cause instability. These countries will not feel comfortable until they struggle like Pakistanis someday.

Avoid cutting

General Instructions
Precis should be one 3rd of original passage
Your passage reflect the original idea
Don't take direct sentences from the passage
It is not the narration do precis

Total words = 403 Original words = 302

Q:03 Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage

i) What were the reasons behind Foreman's transition from boxing to business?

After retirement from the boxing, he thought that he had enough money to live peacefully.

But, he miscalculated. Soon he suffered from financial crisis. He again tried to join boxing but people mocked him that he is too old and unfit for boxing.

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively

Do not be irrelevant in your answer

Please enhance length of each answer

Read the passage carefully

now, he embraced the criticism and emerged as "World Heavyweight oldest champion" at age of 45. He used his fame in starting a business with a company on the basis of selling products on his name, which served as a major profit for him.

2) What was the competitive advantage of George ~~Foreman~~ Foreman Grill?

As George Foreman was famous in the country, so the grill that is named as "George Foreman Grill" sold in large numbers and earned profit. When the competition increased in the market, he sold the naming rights for 13 million. He was full aware of the principle that when to get in and when to get out, by his life experiences.

a unique design that allowed grease to drain off while cooking

3) What would happened if Foreman had not sold the name rights?

If Foreman had not sold the name rights, it would have caused some loss to Foreman. Because, at a time market was becoming saturated with such products. There were alternatives to that as well. Although, that would have not caused huge loss but Foreman made a clever step by selling that.

no word

4) What kind of contrasted and complementary sentiments are evoked in this story?

The age contrast of Foreman - i.e. ⁱⁿ young age and old age was highlighted. Moreover, the contrasted and complementary sentiments are highlighted during critics mocking and Foreman's ignorance to these critics. His charisma, authenticity, success, fame and resilience was highlighted as complementary sentiments.

5) How far is the text successful to present the true picture of Foreman and his struggles?

The text showed Foreman's success and hardships clearly. The passage highlighted his miscalculation about retirement money, his revival in boxing and how he faced the criticism and became a champion despite facing many hardships. Moreover, his calculative move towards business and then his move of getting out of that was clarified.

Q: 04

Correction

6/10

1) The student has written a 20-pages report last night.

⇓ correction

The student has written a ~~20-page~~ report last night.

~~WRITE~~

② Ten miles is a long distance.

③ She is one of the students who has passed the competitive exam.

④ The culture of our country is richer than any other culture in the world.

⑤ Most of the shelves in the library are empty.

⑤ Punctuation

04/05

Bill Gates, once had coffee at a coffee shop * when the waiter was taking the dishes away, Bill Gates tipped him one-dollar. "Whenever your daughter comes for coffee she gives me a five-dollar tip", the waiter said. "She is the daughter of a billionaire", replied Bill Gates and "I am son of a poor carpenter". This is why it is often said, "Never forget your past because your past is your greatest teacher".

⑥ Prepositions

02/05

1) He poured the water into the glass.

2) He wrote them a cheque of $1000.

③ The people were driven of despair by horrors of war.

④ There were lots of shops in the main street.

⑤ The thief has run away with some money.

Translation

04/10

Once, the great thinker of Africa said that when British came Africa, they had modernity, new technologies with them and we had lands. They said that ~~they~~ we came here to make you progress. Through deception, they exploited our land and occupy it. In the same way, they invented social media networks like facebook and whatsapp which were free to use. We got entangled without realizing that our privacy and sovereignty is under threat, as they had access to our personal life. When we get something without paying for it, it compromises

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner

Focus on grammar please

Do not attempt word by word

⑦ i) Dead wood:	No longer useful	The new policy aims to clean up the dead wood in the organization
ii) Hang up one's hat	To retire / stop	My mother has decided to hang up her hat as a teacher.
iii) Fat and Sassy	state of being confident	She seems fat and sassy while ^{delivering} her speech
iv) Midas touch	Lucky / Success	His business gained a huge profit which shows that he has a midas touch.