

Date: _____

Question 4:

Sentence Correction:

1: Hassan Ali Gondeal would rather stay at home than go to the polling station.

2: Advocate Malik Huzaifa always looks for inspiration, but none ever comes.

3: They had a wonderful time and luckily no one was injured.

4: If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.

5: I wish I could go back to earlier times.

Question 5:

A:

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course Sir. Our biryani is so good, it will make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for the Imran!"

Later during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan we don't need candles. Our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!"

They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humour and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

B:

1: My brother sat beside me during the movie and shared his popcorn.

2: The cat jumped onto the table and knocked over the vase.

3: We walked across the bridge to reach the other side of the river.

4: He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister later.

5: The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.

Question 6:

A:

c: CSS examinations are very tough, you will have to burn the midnight oil.

e: Her dishonest friend's crocodile tears had no impact on me d: Stop making castles in the air and work hard to become successful g: Me and my friends painted the town red on my birthday.

f: She got influenced by the new trend and jumped on the bandwagon like her friends

B:

~~floor~~

Question 3:

1: Hiroo is considered a symbol of strength and loyalty because he remained steadfast in his mission and showed great resilience in the face of hardships, despite communication being cut off.

2: During WWII, Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines. His mission was to disrupt enemy's operations and engage in guerrilla warfare.

3: Onoda and his unit remained isolated and unaware of Japan's

Date: _____

Surrender because their communication was cut off while they were present in dense jungles. They received leaflets and broadcasts informing them of the enemy ~~in~~ the war's end but they thought of it to be the enemy's trickery.

4: The Phillippine government dropped leaflets and broadcasted messages but Onoda and his unit considered them to be enemy tricks.

5: Norio Suzuki ventured into the jungles of Lubang and managed to find Onoda's hiding spot. He remained persistent in convincing Onoda that the war had ended and eventually brought ~~major~~ Major Yoshimi Taniguchi to officially relieve Onoda of his duties.

Question 7:

All dogroos ~~would~~ <sup>will</sup> be of no use in the next three years. The pace of technology and the desire to benefit from it is ~~incredibly~~ <sup>so</sup> fast that our former knowledge, knowledge sources and even the syllabus and subjects are becoming irrelevant. When all sorts of information is available in mobile phones, easily accessible in the palm of your hand, then skills take precedence over knowledge. It is now a concern that how <sup>will</sup> the people telling stories on the podium <sup>will</sup> grab the attention of the audience in the foreseeable future. Moreover, how will the teachers be able to teach the mysteries of the world to students in a small classroom, who will rely on the internet.

Question 2:

Title of Precis:

Respect for State Institutions: A Cornerstone of a Thriving Democracy.

Precis:

Respect for state institutions is of vital importance in a functioning democracy. "Judiciary" is responsible for ensuring justice and equality in a state, therefore it is essential that the independence of judiciary and integrity of judiciary be upheld and unnecessary criticism be avoided. Moreover, respect for elected representatives and those in the executive is also crucial because these people are responsible for the proper functioning of state affairs. However, those in leadership positions also have the duty to ensure transparent governance, ethical decision making and accountability to gain trust of the public. In essence, there is a need for unwavering respect for state institutions and working towards their development.

Date: _____