

Name: Masooma
Bāleh OB 52.

Preci and Composition Mock (Feb)

Q: Translation:-

All the degrees in upcoming 3 years are going to be wasted. Technology's speed and the desire to utilize it has become strong that by means of our previous information even syllabus and essays all are becoming irrelevant.

When all types of information ~~be~~ become available on the screen of a mobile phone, then ~~skill~~ ~~has~~ become superior to knowledge and then knowledge take over thought. Now fear has developed that in upcoming days, people who used to tell stories on diases/pulpits, how would they be able to pursue their listeners for Naps-e-Khitaab? and how teachers would be able to teach in small class rooms of the school about symbols of the universe to those ^{at times} students ^{of} who are used to utilize internet. ~~at times~~

Q2: Read the following passage ?

Comprehension:-

Ans(1) Hiroo is considered one of the loyalest and dedicated intelligence officers of his time, he is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because of his unwavering dedication towards his duty. Not only this, he is also explained in the passage as a disciplined warrior. Thus, due to his resilience, value of following discipline and keeping himself isolated, remaining loyal to the state and his tactics made him a symbol of strength and loyalty.

Ans(2) Basically, Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines with orders to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare during the period of World War II.

Ans(3) Onoda and his unit remained isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945 because of holes of war turned against Japan and Onoda and ^{his} unit was unable to communicate with the govt that is why ^{they} continued to operate in the dense jungle being unaware of the shifting geopolitical landscape.

Ans 4) Primarily, these the efforts that were made over the years to convince and inform Onoda and his men about the end of the war ~~included~~ included dropping of leaflets, and broadcasting of messages, by the Philippine govt. However, the attempts ~~were~~ became unsuccessful because Onoda and his men ~~thought~~ considered these efforts as ~~an~~ enemy tricks and thwarted all efforts.

Q3: correct any five of the following:

1) Hassan Ali Gondal rather stay at home than going to polling station.

2) If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.

3) I wish I could go back to earlier times.

4) Money make the mere go.

5) I was not satisfied with education I received from my university, so I took admission in NOA.

Q4: Re-write the following sentences (5) after filling in the blanks with appropriate prepositions.

1) My brother sat beside me during the movie and shared his popcorn.

2) The cat jumped on the table and knocked over the vase.

3) ~~He~~ We walked across the bridge to reach the other side of the river.

4) The kids played in the park until the sun went down.

5) The plane flew over the clouds, offering a breathtaking view.

Q4⁵: Use any 5 idioms in sentences ----?

1) Crocodile tears: To cry in false manner sentence: After committing crime the thief ~~was~~ shed crocodile tears.

2) Castles in the air: Day dreaming, something which unattainable.

sentence: My brother ~~was building castles in the air~~ owing his own Balcony X sentence: My brother built castles in the air about owning his own Balcony in Seattle.

Q6: Punctuate the following passage:-

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter,

“Do you have biryani?”

The waiter grinned, of course! sir.

Our is so good it will make you forget your own name!

~~Bill~~ Bill laughed, I hope not!

I need that for Imran.

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, in Pakistan, we do not need candles;

Our biryani can light up the room.

Bill replied, true, and if you add some spicy chutney, “we might even have a disco party!”

They both chuckled realising that in Pakistan,

humour and hospitality go hand in hand making every meal an unforgettable experience.

Q7: Direct indirect passaseg :

Heer inquired Ranjha about his whereabouts and told him that she had missed him so much.

Ranjha told Heer that he had to travel, but his heart never left her. He asked Heer that how she had been? Heer replied Ranjha that she felt lonely without him. She inquired Ranjha about his journey.

Ranjha told Heer that his journey was a quest for self discovery. He wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts were with her.

Heer asked Ranjha, "What he learned on his journey?" R.

Ranjha replied that he learned the value of struggle and strength it gives.

Heer told Ranjha that she had been counting the ^{days} moments until his return.

Ranjha told Heer that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial. Heer romantically said to Ranjha that not to dwell on the time apart. She said, "We are together now, and that's all that matters."

Ranjha refused Heer's request and told her that his exams were near. He had to leave, but his success would conquer distance and time.