

ENGLISH FINAL MOCK

Question 4

1. Hassan Ali Credenel would rather stay at home than go to the polling station.
2. Advocate Malik Huzafa always looked for inspiration. None ever came.
3. They had a wonderful time luckily none were injured.
5. I wish I could go back to earlier times.
8. Not only did sir Mayid grill a steak for Sir Aghaz, but he also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.
9. Tahis sab performed well; it was a magnificently beautiful performance.

Question 5 (A)

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, sir!". Our Biryani is so good, it'll make you forget your own name! Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for the Inquran!"

Later, during a power outage, Inquran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles; our Biryani alone can light up the room! Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy Chutney, we might even have a Disco party!" They both chuckled, realising that in Pakistan, humour and hospitality go hand in hand; making every meal an unforgettable experience.

B

1. My brother sat beside me during the movie and shared his popcorn.
2. The cat jumped on the table and knocked over the vase.
3. We walked over the bridge to reach the other side of the river.
4. He hid the gift under the table bed to surprise his sister later.
8. We gathered around the camp fire to share stories and laughter.

Question 6

A

- d. After yesterday's argument, everyone sat together in the drawing room today and no one was ready to acknowledge the elephant in the room.
- e. Having realised his defeat in the debate, Ali threw in the towel.
- f. Her exams start next week and so she is busy burning the midnight oil.
- g. If one could only realise how spoiled Ali's sister is, she starts crying crocodile tears everytime she doesn't get her way.
- h. We are going out to party ~~tonight~~ tonight and we will definitely be painting the town red.
- i) I shouldn't have taken three assignments for the weekend because I think I bit off more than I can chew.

(B)

Heer asked Ranjha about where he had been and also exclaimed that she missed him. Ranjha replied that he had to travel and assured her that his heart never left her. He also asked her how she had been. To which Heer replied that she was lonely without him and interested in knowing about his journey.

Ranjha mentioned that it was a quest of self discovery. He wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but ~~his~~ ^{his} thoughts were always with Heer.

Heer asked him about what he had learned on his journey.

Ranjha replied that he learned the value of struggle and the strength it gives.

Heer informed him that she had been counting the days until his return. Ranjha mentioned that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial.

Heer suggests that they don't dwell on the time apart. They were together now and that's all that mattered.

To which Ranjha replied that no the exams are near and he has to leave but his success will conquer distance and time.

QUESTION 1:

All degrees are going to be useless in the next three years. The speed of Technology is so and the will to benefit from it is so great that our previous information, our sources of information and even our syllabus and subjects are becoming redundant. When every kind of information becomes available on the screens of mobile phones that fit in the palm of one's hands then skills surpass knowledge and implementation trumps thoughts. Now it begs to wonder how the storytellers atop will be able to gather people on the importance of speech and how will the teachers be able to teach intricacies of the universe to the students in class who are used to learning everything from the internet.

QUESTION 3

Q1. Hiro Onoda's resilience and unwavering loyalty made him a symbol of strength and loyalty. He refused to believe anything unless it was an order from higher authority, while many efforts to inform him of the end of the war took place. He took them as tricks of enemy combatants and was unwavering in his mission. He continued his assigned duties despite 30 years had passed.

Question 2:-

Onada was sent to Lubang Islands in the Philippines. His orders were to disrupt enemy operation and engage in guerrilla warfare.

Question 3:-

They were cut off from the governments as they took the mission in Philippines. This was in 1944 when communication networks were not so sophisticated enough and while leaflets and broadcasts were made by the Philippine government to inform them. He thought that it was the enemy playing tricks and refused to pay heed to them.

Question 4.

Leaflets were dropped by air and messages were broadcasted by the Philippine government but they were not successful because of the skepticism of the soldiers who thought that the enemy was trying to bait them.

Question 5

In 1974, Onoda's tale became ~~from~~ famous and a young historian called Norio Suzuki decided to go to Lubang to find Onoda. He eventually found him. He had a hard time convincing Onoda that the war was over. Suzuki even had to find Onoda's old commanding officer, Major Taniuchi, who then flew to Lubang to relieve him of his duties.

←————→
Question 2:-

Topic:- ~~Politicomy~~ Politics:

Empowered State Institutions: The Corner Stone of Functioning Democracy.