

Q No 4

- 1 Hassan Ali Ghandal would rather stay at home than go to polling station.
- 2 Advocate Malik Huzefa always looks for inspiration but none ever comes.
- 43 If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.
- 5 I wish I could go back to earlier times.
- 8 ~~Not~~ Sir Majid Not only grilled a steak for Sir Azhar, but he also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.

Q No 5

(A) Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, Sir, our biryani is so good it will make you forget your name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for Timan!"

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we do not need candles, our biryani alone can light up the room!"

Bill replied, "True, and if you add some chutney, we might even have a disco party!"

They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

(B)

(i) beside

(ii) onto

(iii) across

(iv) Under

(v) on

Q No 6 (A)

(a) Elephant in the room:

The issues in Pakistan are like that of elephants in the room which only subvert and never leave Pakistan stand with a great stability.

c Burning the midnight oil:

All the aspirants are burning the midnight oil for their attempt of CSS 2024.

d) Castles in the air:

A friend of mine all the time builds the castles in the air which even he himself knows very well are impossible in reality.

g Paint the town red:

Some people work so hard that it seems that they are painting the town red.

B

Heer asked Ranja that where he had been that she <sup>had</sup> missed him so much. Ranja replied that he had to travel and his heart <sup>had</sup> never left Heer and asked her that how she had been. On reply Heer said she felt lonely without him and asked about his journey. Ranja expressed that the journey had been a quest for the self discovery, and further expressed he had wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts had been <sup>always</sup> with her. Heer enquired that what he had learnt from the journey.

In reply Ranja expressed it had given strength and value of struggle. Heer additionally said she had been waiting for his return where as same feelings had Ranja for his return. Heer finally expressed that we are together now and that was what mattered. In reply, Rainha expressed that he had to leave <sup>But</sup> ~~and~~ his success would conquer distance and time.

Q No 3

1

Ans Hiroo Onoda, a Japanese intelligence officer during World War II was known a figure of loyalty because of his testament and the sense of duty. He was sent to an Philippine Island which makes him the strengthened.

2

Ans He was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines, and the orders were given to him that he had to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare.

3

Ans Because the tides of war turned against Japan and Onoda's unit found themselves isolated and cut off from the communication.

Even the war was ended in 1945 ~~but~~ and Japan had surrendered but Onoda's team was still engaged in their mission.

4

Ans The following attempts were made to inform Onoda's team about the war ending: The Leaflets were dropped, messages were broadcasted by the Phillipine government, but the enthusiastic soldiers believed such attempts were enemy's tricks.

5

Ans Norio Suzuki was a young adventurer who planned to go in the forest of Lubhang with a mission find "Lieutenant Onoda". He found Onoda and after a hectic attempt he was successful to make Onoda believe that the war has been ended three decades ago.

Q No 2

The Crucial Role of State Institutions in Upholding Democracy

The passage emphasizes the vital role of state institutions, particularly the judiciary, legislative, and executive branches in maintaining a strong democracy.

It stresses the importance of respecting the independence and integrity of the judiciary, accepting the voice of the people through parliamentary institutions.

The collective responsibility and accountability lead to an improved governance. Political leaders are told to have a transparent governance and a good decision-making system to gain public confidence.