

English Preis-modu

Question # 04 :

- (5) I wish I could go back to earlier times.
- (6) Money makes the more go.
- (8) Not only Sir Majid grilled a steak for Sir Azhar, but also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.
- (9) Tahir Sab performed well; it was a magnificent and beautiful performance.
- (10) I wasn't satisfied with the education I got from my University, so I took admission to NOA.

Question #06 :

Idioms usage :

(c) Burning the midnight oil

He is burning the midnight oil to crack the CSS examination.

(d) Crocodile tears

He shed crocodile tears at the funeral, but everyone knows he did not care about it.

h) Skeleton in the closet:

↳ The boss acquired the candidate about a skeleton in the closet of his professional life.

d) Castles in the air

His plan of becoming a future Prime Minister is just a castle in the air.

Part (b):

Narration Passage :-

Heer acquired Ranjha where he had been as she had missed him so much.

Ranjha replied that he had to travel, but his heart had never left her and further asked how she had been. Heer replied that she felt lonely without him.

On asking about his journey, Ranjha ~~so~~ told that it was a quest for self-discovery. He had wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts were always with her. Heer asked about his his learning on his journey to which Ranjha replied that he had learnt the value of struggle and the strength it gave. Heer said that she ~~was~~ had been counting the days until his return. Ranjha agreeing with Heer said that he finally succeeded in his final trial. Heer asked Ranjha not to dwell on the time apart as they were together then and that was all that matters. Ranjha replied in negation that his exams were near. He had to leave by his. He was hopeful that his success would conquer distance and time.

Question #07:

Translation:

In the next three years, all the degrees will be of no use.

In the coming three years, these degrees will become irrelevant. The technological pace and the willingness to utilize it effectively is intense enough that our previous knowledge, its sources and even curriculum, subjects all ^{are} becoming quite irrelevant. When all sorts of knowledge is available on telephone screens, then skill supersedes knowledge and action takes precedence over thoughts. Now, this fear is prevalent that how the people who used to narrate stories will grab the attention of its audience. It is also a matter of concern that how teachers will enable their students to understand the mysterious of universe, in a small classroom, who are addicted to Internet.

Question # 05(a) :

Punctuation :

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned,

"Of course, Sir! Our biryani is so good, it'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for the Imran!"

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles, our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

Part (b):

- (i) My brother sat beside me during the movie and shared his popcorn.
- (ii) We walked through the bridge to reach the other side of the river.
- (iii) He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister later.
- (iv) The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.

ND The kids played in the park until the sun went down.

Question # 02:

Nexus between State Institutions and Democracy

Precis:

The state institutions are of great significance for democracy to flourish. The three pillars of the state are judiciary, legislative and executive. Judiciary is entitled to dispense justice, legislature to uphold rule of law, and executive to execute policies as described by legislature. But the matter of concern is to keep these institutions intact. When all these institutions work in collaboration, it improves the governance structure of the state. For this, onus lies on the political leaders to set a precedent for the citizens. This is pivotal for the integrity of these institutions as it strengthens the democratic values. By doing this, the principles of democracy will be flourished.

word in precis 96

words in original passage 323