

PART - II

Q2. Make a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Importance of Respecting State Institutions

Judiciary, the guardian of Justice, demands respect. The independent judiciary is crucial for unbiased justice and any intervention can undermine the integrity of judiciary. Similarly, the legislature also demands respect as it is necessary for efficient democracy. Citizens and Leaders participate actively in the legislative processes to promote democracy. The executive also demands respect. It is responsible for implementing laws and policies. For the smooth functioning of the government, the collaborative working of these three state institutions is necessary. Leaders must set an example for the citizens by demonstrating a true commitment to the principles designed by the state institutions. Respecting state institutions brings strength and resilience to a nation. It is the duty of the citizens to uphold the respect of state institutions for the progress of nation.

Q3- Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Questions :

Q.1 Why is Hiroo considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty?

Hiroo is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because he showed unwavering resilience and kept fighting for his country for three decades even after the end of WW2. He remained steadfast to his duty which earned him admiration and dedication. His unparalleled display of strength and loyalty made him a real hero.

Q2. In what location was Onoda sent with orders during WW2 and what were his specific instructions?

In 1944, during World War II, Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines. Onoda was given specific instructions to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare. Onoda and his unit were steadfast in their mission and continued to operate in the dense jungles of the islands.

Q3. Why did Onoda and his unit remain isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945?

Onoda and his unit remained isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945 because after their arrival in Philippines, the course of war turned against the Japan and consequently, all the communication channels were cut off. Onoda and his comrades lost connection with the officials and hence were unaware of the fact that Japan surrendered and World War 2 came to its end.

Q4. What efforts were made over the years to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the end of the war, and why were these attempts unsuccessful?

Many efforts were made over the years to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the end of the war. Leaflets were dropped and messages were broadcasted by the Philippines' government to inform Ornodá and his men. All these attempts were unfruitful because Ornodá and his ~~the~~ men thought of these news as enemy's tricks. They were very skeptical in this regard. Moreover, the dense jungle made it difficult to reach Ornodá and his men.

Q5. How did Norio Suzuki become involved in Ornodá's story, and what challenges did he face in convincing Ornodá to believe that the war has ended?

Almost three decades after the end of World War 2, a young adventurer named Norio Suzuki set out in the jungle of Lubang with a mission to find Ornodá. ~~He~~ Surprisingly, he found the hiding place of Ornodá and told him about the end of war. Suzuki faced challenges in convincing Ornodá to believe that the war has ended because Ornodá was very cautious and he saw Suzuki suspiciously as an enemy's trick. Suzuki, however, managed to find Ornodá's former commanding officer and with his help, ~~assured~~ higher-commanding officers issued the return orders of Ornodá.

Q4- Correct any FIVE of the following.

4- If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.

1- Hassan Ali Gondal would stay at home rather than going to polling station.

3- They had a wonderful time and luckily none of them was injured.

9- Tahir sab performed well; it was a magnificent performance.

5- I wish I could go back to earlier times.

Q5- A- Punctuate the following passage:

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi Restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course, sir. Our Biryani is so good. It'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need that for Imran!"

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped,

"In Pakistan, we don't need candles; Our Biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" Both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

---

Q5- B- Re-write the following sentences (ONLY FIVE) after filling in the blanks with appropriate prepositions.

ii- The cat jumped onto the table and knocked over the vase.

iv- He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister later.

vi- The kids played in the park until the sun went down.

iii- We walked across the bridge to reach the other side of the river.

i- My brother sat beside me during the movie and shared his popcorns.

---

Q6 - A - Use any five of the following idioms in your own sentences to bring out their meaning.

d- Castles in the air

The enemy tried to capture land of Pakistan; the enemy was in fact making castles in the air.

e- Burning the midnight oil

She was very concerned about her admission, she burnt the midnight oil to achieve her goals.

e- Crocodile Tears

The ball ~~did not~~ <sup>did not</sup> hit her hard but she began weeping crocodile tears.

j- Bite off more than one can chew

Pakistan's befitting reply to Iran's attack showed Iran that it has bitten off more than it could chew.

a- Elephant in the room

The freedom of speech is indeed elephant in the room but people ignore it out of their fears.

B - Rewrite the following passages, converting what is in direct speech into indirect, and what is in indirect speech into direct.

Heer asked Ranjha that where he have been and she missed him so much. Ranjha replied that he had to travel but his heart was close to her. Upon asking that how she was doing, Heer replied that she felt lonely without him. She asked him about his journey. He replied that he was pursuing self-discovery by wandering through valleys and rivers but his thoughts never missed her. She asked about his learning. He replied that he learned the value of struggle and strength. She told him that she had been counting the days until his return. He replied that he had counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial. She ~~could~~ asked to not think of the time when they were apart and enjoy the moments they have now, together. Upon this, he replied that he was worried about his exams and he had to leave and his success would conquer distance and time.

---

Q7- Translate the following into English by keeping in view any figurative / idiomatic expression.

All the degrees are going to be wasted in the next three years. The pace of technology and the desire for its benefits are so fast that not only the previous information and its sources but also the courses and subjects are going to be irrelevant. When any kind of information can be accessed just by a phone, then skill and action supersedes knowledge and thought respectively. It is now concerning that in the coming days how the teachers will teach the mysteries of universe in a small classroom to the students who totally rely on internet?

---