Question no: 1

A Punctuate the Passage.

"My quaint Ariel", said Prospero to the little sprite, when he made him free. "I shall miss you, yet you shall have your freedom."
 "Thank you, my dear master," said Ariel. "But give me a leave to attend your ship with prosperous gales, before you bid farewell to the assistance of your faithful spirit".

B. Rewrite the passage

John asked Bob whether he had heard the news about Jake. Bob answered in the negative and asked what had happened. John replied that he had been terminated the previous day and asked bob if he could believe it. Bob was surprised and he thought Jake had been doing well in his role.

 John told him that unfortunately there had some budget cuts and they had to let a few people go. Bob termed it as terrible and asked how Jake was taking it although he had been here for years. John told him that ~~Jack~~^{Jack} was not too well and was shocked and frustrated although he had tried to reach out to offer support, but ~~it~~^{for him} ~~he~~ was still processing everything. Bob exclaimed with disgust that it was too hard and hoped that he bounced back ^{soon} and it was always tough when someone you had worked with for so long had to go through this.
 John replied in the affirmative that it is a tough reality and they would miss him having in the office and he just expressed hope that he lands on his feet soon.
