

| | |
|---------|------------------------|
| Name | Muhammad Shohzaib |
| LMS ID | 27925 |
| Roll no | 329-CSS24-NOAISB1-2528 |
| Batch | 329-CSS24-NOA-ISB1 |
| Campus | Islamabad Campus-1 |

Q3. Read the passage and answer the questions:

Answer:

① Hiroo Onoda is considered as a symbol of loyalty and strength because he along with his comrades continued to fight the enemy in an isolated Island in ^{the} Phillipines for 30 years. He refused to surrender without the orders of his high-ranking officers.

② In 1944, during World War II, Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in the Phillipines with orders to disrupt enemy operations and engage with gurilla warfare.

③ Onado along with his unit was fighting against the enemy at a dense jungle in an island of Phillipines. When Japan surrendered in 1945, Onado and his unit found themselves isolated and cut off from communication. Thus, they remained unaware of Japan's surrender and continued to fight.

④ Over the years, attempts were made to contact Onado and his men about the war's end. Leaflets were dropped and messages were broadcasted but they believed such attempts as enemy tricks.

⑤ Norio Suzuki was a young adventurer who ventured into the jungles to find Onado. When he found Onado, he tried to convince him. He even managed to find Onado's former commanding officer but Onado eyed Suzuki suspiciously and refused to lay down arms.

Q5. Punctuated the following passage.
Punctuated Passage:

Bill Clinto walked into Karachi Restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have Biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course sir! Our Biryani is so good that it will make you forget your own name. Bill laughed, "I hope not; I need that for Imran."

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan, we don't need candles; our Biryani alone can light up the room. Bill replied, "And if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party." They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan humour and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

Q5(B) Rewrite the following sentences:

① My brother sat beside me during the movie and shared his popcorn.

② The cat jumped on the table and knocked over the vase.

③ He hid his gift under the bed to surprise his sister later.

④ The kids played in the park until the sun went down.

⑤ The plane flew over the clouds, offering a breathtaking view.

⑥ We walked into the bridge to reach the other side of the river.

⑦ The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.

Q4. Correct Sentences.

① Hassan Ali would stay at home rather than going to polling station.

② ~~At~~ Sir Majid not only grill a steak for Sir Azhar but also cooked biryani for Sir Shahob.

③ I wasn't satisfied with the education I received at my university, so I took admission at NOA.

④ Money makes the mare go.

⑤ I wish I could go back to earlier time.

⑥ If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.

⑦ They had a wonderful time and luckily no of them was injured.

Q6. Idioms

① Castles in the air

She has no plan^{to} go to London.
She is just building castles in the air.

② Burning the midnight oil

You cannot pass the examination without burning the midnight oil.

③ Crocodile tears

The USA's condemnation of Israel's atrocities is just crocodile tears.

④ Bite off more than one can chew

She is going to sit for CSS examination but it could be bite off more than she can chew.

⑤ Paint the town red

Cricketers paint the town red after they won the worldcup.

Q6.B Answer

* Heer asked Ranjha that where he had been. She expressed that she has missed him so much.

* Ranjha replied that he had to travel but his heart never left him. Ranjha inquired the how she had been.

* Heer responded that she felt lonely with him. She asked him about his journey.

* Ranjha replied that it was a quest for self-discovery. He wandered thorough valleys and crossed rivers but his thoughts were always with her.

* Heer inquired him that what had he learn on his journey.

* Ranjha answered that he had learned the value of struggle and strength it gives.

Heer said to him ^{that} she counting the days until his return.

* Heer replied that she had been counting the moment until his succeeded in his final trial

* Heer told him that to it is not to dwell on the time apart. They are together now and that's all that matters.

* Ranjha ^{responded} that ~~that~~ exams were near and he had to leave. But his success would conquer distance and time.

Q7. Translation

All the degrees are going to be useless in the coming three years. The pace of technology and the quest of those learning it is so fast that our previous knowledge, sources of knowledge, and even the curriculum and the subjects are becoming irrelevant. When every sort of information becomes available on a hand

Size mobile screen than the skill becomes superior to knowledge and the action becomes important than cognition. It has been feared that in coming times how would the religious speakers narrating stories can convince its listeners. And how a teacher can explain the secrets of universe in the classroom to those who use internet everytime.

Q2. Precis:

Title:

Upholding the Respect of State's Institution:

Upholding the respect of every state's institution is important. Every institution plays a role in the nation's building. Judiciary interprets and upholds the law, legislature frames the law while executive execute and implement the law.

For the progress and development of a nation, the harmony between the government ~~instituti~~ branches and citizens' respect to these branches is imperative. A strong political leadership is mandatory to build the public confidence. The respect of state institutions is not carrying their orders but also for a progressed, equal and just society, which is the core function of democracy.

Passage words = 300

Precised passage words = 94