

DATE: nd 2 Feb 2024

Friday

ENGLISH PRECIS AND COMPOSITION

Q: 2

PRECIS

Judiciary, Legislature and Executive are three pillars of a state. Legislature is responsible for designing laws and policies as per demands of people thus promoting democracy and accountability. Judiciary is responsible for interpretation of those laws and safeguarding rights through justice. While executive is responsible for enactment of these laws and policies efficiently whereby citizens are bound to trust state institutions so that they can work cohesively for their betterment and progress. The trust is earned via responsible leadership which satisfies public opinions through transparency, legislation and accountability. Respecting the state institutions is equally mandatory.

DATE: ___/___/___

to citizens and state officials. Obeying values like rule of law, separation of power and accountability strengthen a nation where citizens trust the pillars of state so that all work together for glorifying state's image and its development.

TITLE:

Significance of State's Institutions

Role of Citizens Towards State Institutions.

Respecting State Institutions and Essence of Democracy

Q: 3

Q 1:

Hiroo Onoda was ordered to go to Lubang Island, Philippines in 1944 for disrupting enemy. In 1945, the war ended. But Hiroo was in jungles busy in operationalizing the state orders. Multiple attempts were made to inform him, but being aware of enemy tactics he didn't consider any of the slogan of peace, and didn't compromise on his guerrilla tactic. Even in 1974 when Norio Suzuki found him and convinced him of the changed geopolitics, he still demanded his commanding officers to convince him. Therefore Major Yoshimi had to flee Lubang. His resilience was his strength and his loyalty was his pride which made him a symbol of strength and loyalty.

Q2:

In 1944, he was ordered to move towards Lubang Island in Philippines to disrupt enemy operations and to engage in a guerrilla warfare. He remained stick to his duty for 30 years, even the war has been ended the very next year of his appointment to task.

Q3:

Onoda and his team was in a very dense jungle of Lubang Island where they were secretly performing their tasks. They were informed through different ways but Onoda considered it a mere trick of enemy to distract him of his duty. He didn't want to take a risk which could prove damaging against his country. He remained loyal to his tack and remained isolated for thirty years.

Q4:

War ended in next year of their dispaichment. Philippine government broadcasted the changed geopolitics and also distributed leaflets, so that in any way Onoda and his team came to know the situation and come out of guerrilla. But the courageous and loyal personels considered all the information just a piece of trick against Japan. Therefore, all these efforts remained fruitless.

Q5:

In 1974, Onoda's story gained attention so Norio Suzuki aimed to explore Lubang in order to search him. He accidentally stepped in Onoda's hiding spot. He tried to convince him about the ending of war, for which he also found and contacted his senior Major Yoshimi Taniguchi. Norio asked him to come to Lubang to meet Onoda and personally tell him about the changed situation. Finally, Onoda came out as a man of strength and loyalty.

Q: 4

- 1 Hassan Ali Gondaal would stay at home rather than going to polling station.
- 3 They had a terrible time but luckily no one was injured.
- 4 If there are no bad people, there will be no good lawyers.
- 5 I wish to go back to earlier times.
- 8 Sir Najid not only grilled a steak for Sir Azhar but also cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.

Q: 5

(A)

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course! Sir, our biryani is so good, it'll make you forget your own name!" Bill laughed, "I hope not! I need it for Imran!" Later, during a power ouage in Pakistan, Imran quipped, "we don't need candles, our biryani alone can light up the room!" Bill replied, "True, and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party!" They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

(B)

- 1 My brother sat besides me during the movie and shared his popcorn.
- 2 The cat jumped on the table and knocked over the vase.
- 4 He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister later.
- 5 The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia.
- 6 The kids played in the park until the sun went down.

Q: 6 (A)

a) Elephant in the room

His elephant in the room behavior damages their relation, amid its delicacy.

b) Burning the midnight oil

Advocating subsidies especially for industrial and governmental use is burning the midnight oil for state's stringent resources.

d) Castles in the air

He is building castles in the air for his future while not paying attention to his studies properly.

e) Crocodile tears

Joye can easily convince anyone of his victimisation showcasing his crocodile tears.

j) Bite off more than one can chew

Gull remained busy often as she use to bite off more than one can chew.

(B)

Heer inquired Ranjha about where he has been as she missed him so much. Ranjha told her that he had to travel but his heart never left her. Then he asked her well being. She told him that she was lonely without him and asked about his journey. He elaborated his search for self discovery in which he wandered through valleys and crossed rivers but his mind was always with her in the entire journey. She inquired about the lesson of his journey. He told her about the worth of struggle and strength which it gives to him. Heer told him about her wait for his returning whereas Ranjha told her about his wait for gaining success in his goal. She suggested him not to dwell on time apart in which they were apart. Now they are together nothing else should matter to them. But Ranjha reminded her about exams, so he has to leave but his success will conquer distance and time for them.

DATE: ___/___/___

Q 87

All the degrees are going to be useless in coming three years. The technological pace and desire to gain benefits from it is so rapid that our previous knowledge, its sources, even the syllabus and text books, all are becoming irrelevant. When all the information can be accessed on the screen of a phone which can easily fit in palm, then skills overcome knowledge, and actions take preference over thoughts. It is doubted that in coming days how the storytellers on stage can will focus the listeners of their address towards themselves and the all-time beneficiary of students of internet about the teachers ~~teaching~~ can teach them whole universe inside a small room?

