

Question # 2 ----- Prec's...

Respect state institutions

Judiciary is one of the fundamental state institutions. It deals with the right of citizens and legal matters. Similarly, in democratic environment parliament represents the people in legislation in the form of debates and dialogues. It is our duty to respect both institutions for unbiased judicial system and true legislation of parliament. Executive branch includes government officials performing their duty efficiently. Need to respect them for better connectivity between government officials and public. Similarly transparency and accountability is also necessary for confidence of the public. As citizens, it is our duty to respect our state institutions for the betterment of society in the form of justice, progress and equality.

Word count = 109 / 323

Question # 3 --- Comprehension

Q.1 -----

Answer: Hiroo Onoda, a Japanese intelligence officer considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty. The reason was Hiroo's act of loyalty and strength. His commanding officer, Major Yoshimune Taniguchi send him on mission during world war II in the Lubang Island. Where he spent his 30 years of life just because his senior order. Even he was not bargiven attention to Philipppines govt message about end of war and think this was a trape by enemies. Similarly he was not give attention on Norio Suzuki - a young adventure, who told him that war was end. That's why Hiroo considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty.

Q.2 -----

Answer: Hiroo Onoda was sent to the Lubang Island - Philippine - during the world war II. Onoda basre and specific instructions were to disrupt enemy operations and engage in guerrilla warfare.

Q.3 -----

Answer: Hiroo Onoda and his unit remain isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945. Because, they were cutoff from communication. And other reason is geopolitical landscape of the Lubang Island. Even they neglect the broadcasted message by Phillipine government. That's why Hiroo Onoda and his unit remain isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945.

Q.4 -----

Answer: There were different efforts were made over the years to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the end of the war. But these attempts were unsuccessful. First attempt was the broadcasted by the philippine government. It was neglected by Hiroo Onoda because he supposed it was a trap by enemy. Second attempt was done by Norio Suzuki - a young adventurer. His duty was to give message to Onoda that come back because war was ended. But Onoda neglected him and because he was under the command of Major Yoshimi Taniguchi and only obey his order. Unfortunately, after this 30 year Taniguchi was a bookseller. That's why this attempt was also failed.

DATE: ___/___/___

Q.5 -----

Answer: Norio Suzuki was involved in Lieutenant Hiroo Onoda in a way that he was an adventurer. That's why government gave him duty to go into the Lubang Island and find Onoda, give him message the war ended so come back. But, this mission become challenging for Suzuki because Onoda's neglected. Then Suzuki go back and trace the commanding officer of Onoda's whose name was Yoshimi Taniguchi, and he was retired from army and selling books those days. He came with Suzuki in Lubang Island and told the reality to Onoda. On the orders of his

DATE: ___/___/___

commanding officer Onoda finally come out of the jungle.

Question No 4

Hassan Ali Gondal would stay at home rather than going to Polling Station.

Advocate Malik Huzarfa always look for inspiration. None ever come.

They had a wonderful time and
luckily no were injured.

If there will no bad people,
there will be good lawyers.

I wish, I could go back to earlier times.

I was not satisfied with education I received from my university, so I took admission at NOA.

Tahir Sab performed well. It was a magnificent beautiful performance.

Question 5 ----- Punctuation

A.

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi and asked the waiter; "do you have biryani"?

The waiter grinned! "Of course Sir"; "our biryani is so good it will make you forget your own name." Bill laughed! "I hope not; I need that for the Imran!"

Later, during a power outage, imran quipped in Pakistan. "We don't need candles, our biryani alone can light up the room". Bill replied; "True! and if you add some spicy chutney, we might ~~be~~ even a disco party." They both chuckled realizing that in Pakistan humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

B. Prepositions:

My brother sat with me during the movies and shared his popcorn

DATE: / /

The cat jumped over the table and knocked over the vase.

We walked through the bridge to reach the other side of the river.

He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister later.

The book is at the shelf,
right next to the encyclopedia.

The kid played in the park
until the sun went down.

The plane flew above the clouds,
offering a breathtaking view.

Question - 6 Idioms.

A---

Elephant in the room:

To much ministers and advisers by the government are the Elephant in the room of economy.

DATE: ___/___/___

Burning the midnight oil:

These days ^{ess} asprints hardworking is like burning the midnight oil.

Paint the town red:

At wedding the bride was in red colour and all the surrounding of wedding hall also shows red looks like paint the town red.

To have a chip on one's shoulder:

Boys are very helpful to each other like a chip on one's shoulder.

Crocodile tears:

Relatives have great experience of Crocodile tears at every sad or happy moment.

B--- Direct Speech into Indirect:

Heer inquired Ranjha about his absence because she missed him very much. Ranja replied that he was on travel but his heart never left here. Further,

DATE: ___/___/___

He inquired about Heer during his absence. Heer replied that she was lonely without him. Heer further inquired about his journey. Ranjha replied that, his journey was quest for self-discovery. He further explained that he wandered through valleys and crossed rivers, but his thoughts were always with her. Heer again inquired about learning of his journey. Ranjha replied that he learned the value of struggle and the strength which he received. Heer explained that she had been counting the days until he returned. Ranjha replied that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final ~~exam~~ trial. Heer relaxing him and said that not to dwell on the time apart. They were have been together now and that's why all that matter. Ranjha answered that no, the exams were near. He had to leave. ~~But~~ his He further said that his success will conquer distance and time.

Question 7 -----

Translation:

All degrees will going to expire in next three years. The speed of technology and the number of those who took benefit from it are going to increase rapidly and fastly. Infact of previous knowledge and ways of knowledge like syllabus and subjects all are outdated rapidly. When all kinds of information is stored in the hand size phone, then skill compeate knowledge and Practical compeate the theories. Now the thread is how the debaters tells stories to the audrance and these students who use internet, how teachers will teach them about the laws of universe in a class zoom ?
