

Final Draft

"Role Of Citizens in Upholding State Institutions"

Author Says for true democracy respect for constitutional institution is necessary.

Democracy comes by keeping the purity of these institutions: judiciary, legislature, and executive. All these institutes are important for making, implementing and ensuring of law. Citizens and leaders should trust and respect them. True democracy comes when they fulfill this. When citizens trust on them they work efficiently, overall performance of nation improves. Respect of institutions is necessary for democracy, accountability and to strengthen the nation. ~~that~~ it is our responsibility as a citizen to support them. For inspiring public, political leaders contribute to maintain their proper working.

Q NO: 3

Passage.

Q: NO: 1.

Hiroo is considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because he followed the orders given by Japan during world war II. War was ended, due to cut off communication he fulfilled the orders. He spend 30 years in jungle because he was loyal with state.

Q NO: 2

Onoda was a Japanese intelligence officer during world war II. He was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines with orders to disrupt enemy operations in guerrilla warfare.

ANS NO. 3

Onoda and his unit remain

Isolated and unaware of Japan's Surrender in 1945 because they were isolated and cut off from communication. No one would send message to them. Over the years attempts were made to contact with Ooda.

Ans NO: 4

Over the years many attempts were made to contact and inform Ooda about the war's end, but all were unsuccessful. ~~First~~ attempt Ooda and his team were loyal to nation, they thought this is the enemy trick to trapped
us. First attempt <sup>was</sup> done by Norio Suzuki, a young adventure, second was done by Major Tomiguchi.

Ans NO: 5

~~Ooda~~ Norio Suzuki faced difficulties when he was finding the Ooda.

He tracked the Onoda spot in Lubang Island jungles. Onoda ~~did~~ refused his story that was heard ended.

Q No: 4

- ⑧ Sir Majid not only grilled a steak for Sir Azhar, but he also looked bigyani for Sir Shahab.
- ② I was not satisfied with the education which I received from my university, so I took admission at NQA.
- ③ If there were no bad, there would be no need for good lawyers.
- ④ I wish I could return to earlier times.
- ⑤ They had a wonderful time and luckily no one was injured.

Q. NO: 5

Punctuate

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant, and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?"

The waiter grinned, of course, Sir. Our biryani is so good. It'll ~~will~~ make you forget your own name! Bill laughed, I hope not! I need that for the Imran!

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, In Pakistan, we don't need candles; our biryani alone can light up the room! Bill replied, "True, and if you added some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party! They both chuckled, realizing that in Pakistan, humor and respect/hospitality go hand and hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

Preposition

- ① My brother sat besides me during the movie.
- ② The cat jumped onto the table.
- ③ We walked across the bridge.
- ④ The book is on the shelf.
- ⑤ The plane flew above the clouds.

Part ② Idioms

- ① He was facing the issue like elephant in the room.
- ② When mother picked his mobile he started shedding crocodile tears.
- ③ He was burning the midnight oil to pass the exam.
- ④ After accepting three major projects at once, she realized she had bitten off more than she could chew and struggled to meet the deadlines.
- ⑤ He always seems castle in the air to become a doctor.

Translation

In the coming three years all degree's are going to be useless.

Our previous information source of information, even the topics and ~~that~~ subjects all are going to be irrelevant due to increases in speed of <sup>and</sup> utilization <sup>technology</sup> willingers to use it.

When every information comes on mobile screen then ~~knowledge~~.

Skill overcomes on knowledge, and action overcomes on think. Now

~~the~~ it is feared that in coming days

how will those who recite ~~on stage~~ stories on the pulpits be able to unite their followers on self-addressing and <sup>to</sup> dependent student on internet how teachers used to teach the Symbols of Word in small room.