

Q. NO. 2.

The Respect of State Institutions

The judiciary - one of the pillars of democracy demands respect. Freedom of judiciary is requisite for the impartial dispense of justice. Therefore, its prestige must not be hurt by its inhabitants. Further, reverence of the parliamentary institutions is equally essential for the smooth functioning of democracy. Besides, the implementation of laws and policies is the responsibility of executive branch which must be trusted by its citizens so that it can deliver its duty with integrity. For development and progress of any nation, it is incumbent upon its state institutions to work in mutual collaboration. Political leaders must show adherence to the democratic principles to win the confidence of public. Being citizens, it is obligated upon them to respect state institutions and have strong confidence in them which will aid in the prevalence of principles of justice, equality and progress in the society.

Passage word count = 356
Preers word count = 118

Q. No. 3.

1) Hiroo is considered a symbol of strength and loyalty because of his unwavering dedication to his sense of duty. Despite the end of World War II he remained steadfast and was doing his job without any fear of enemy.

2) Hiroo Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in the Philippines in 1944. He was ordered to dismantle the operations of the adversary and to engage themselves in the guerrilla warfare.

3) Onoda and his unit remained isolated and <sup>were</sup> unaware of the Japanese surrender in 1945 because of the absence of any communication channel. Further, the density of jungle and skepticism of soldiers rendered them unaware of changing geopolitical landscape.

4) After the end of the war, several attempts were made to inform Onoda about the curtailment of the war. Leaflets were dropped and the government of Philippines broadcasted messages regarding the end of the war. However, these attempts remained futile as the Onoda and his team took those attempts for the tricks of Philippine's government.

b) Three decades after the end of the war, Norio Suzuki embark upon the mission to find the Onoda and to convince him that the war had ended. In order to convince Onoda, Suzuki found <sup>out</sup> that Onoda's former commanding officer Major Yoshomi Taniguchi to relieve Onoda of his duties. At last, his lieutenant delivered the order of his relief and Onoda emerged out of the jungle.

Q. No. 4

1) If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers.

2) I wish I could go back to earlier times.

3) As I was not satisfied with education I received from my university, so I took admission to NOA.

4) Not only Sir Majid grilled steak for Sir Azhar, but also he cooked biryani for Sir Shahab.

5) Hassan Ali Gondaal would rather stay at home than go ~~to~~ to Police Station.

Q 5 (A)

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter, "Do you have biryani?" The waiter grinned, "Of course sir, our biryani is so good. It will make you forget your own name". Bill laughed, "I hope not, I need that for the Imran". Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped, "In Pakistan we do not need candles, our biryani alone can light up the room". Bill replied, "True and if you add some spicy chutney, we might have a disco party". They both chuckled, realizing in Pakistan humour and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

Q5 (B)

- 1) Beside
- 2) over
- 3) Towards
- 4) In
- 5) In
- 6) In
- 7) over
- 8) Around.

Q. NO. 6 (A)

- 1) We must find an elephant in the room and get rid of it as soon as possible.
- 2) Amna burnt the midnight oil to pass the CSS exam with flying colours.
- 3) Fazal's mother-in-law is so hypocrite that she shed crocodile tears at the death of his mother, thinking that ~~the~~ now sole owner of the house is her daughter.

4) Ahmed jumped on the bandwagon by posting a post regarding 'Kiya humon Ghulam hain' (Are we slaves)

5) Kashif is too selfish, he always has a chip on his shoulder.

Q. No. 6 (B).

- Heer asked Ranjha where he had been and said that she had missed him so much.

- Ranjha said that he had to travel but his heart had never left her and he inquired about her.

- Heer replied that she was lonely without him and asked him about his journey.

- Ranjha replied that it had been a quest for self-discovery. He wandered through valleys and crossed rivers but his thoughts had always been with her.
- Heer further asked him what he had learnt on his journey.
- Ranjha answered that he had learnt the value of struggle and the strength that it gives.
- Heer said that she had been counting the days until his return.
- Ranjha acknowledged her feelings & said that he had been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial.
- Heer said let's not dwell on the time apart. They were together and that's all that matters.

- Ranjha replied in negation and said that exams were near. He had to leave but his success would conquer the distance and time.

Q. No. 7.

All degrees are going to be useless in years to come. The speed of the technology and the desire to get its benefits has increased to such an extent that our previous knowledge, source of knowledge and even the syllabus and subjects are going to be less important. When knowledge of everything is available by finger touch through phone screens then technology overtakes education. Similarly, Action overtakes thought.

It is being apprehended that in coming days how those who deliver tales on pulpit and advice their listeners to control their nafs will influence them. Similarly, at the same time how would teachers ~~to~~ ~~to~~ teach the students about the functioning of the universe who are being benefited from the internet.