

QUESTION-4

Correction of Sentences

Answer:-

- 1) Hassan Ali Gindal would prefer staying at home rather than going to polling station
- 2) I took admission to NOA because I wasn't satisfied with the education that I have recieved from my university
- 3) Tahir sab performed well; it was magnificently beautiful performance
- 4) They had a wonderful time and luckily none of them was injured
- 5) Sir Majid not only grilled a steak for sir Azhar, but he also cooked biryani for sir Shahab.

QUESTION-5

Punctuation

Answer:-

Bill Clinton walked into a Karachi restaurant and asked the waiter: do you have biryani? The waiter grinned; of course sir! "Our biryani is so good, it'll make you forget your own name." Bill laughed! I hope not, I need that for Imran.

Later, during a power outage, Imran quipped; in Pakistan we don't need candles, our biryani alone can light up the room. Bill replied: true! and if you add some spicy chutney, we might even have a disco party. They both chuckled! realizing that in Pakistan, humor and hospitality go hand in hand, making every meal an unforgettable experience.

(B)

Fill in the Blank

Answers:-

- i) My brother sat next to me during the movie and shared his popcorn
- ii) We walked over the bridge to reach the other side of the river.
- iii) He hid the gift under the bed to surprise his sister later
- iv) The book is on the shelf, right next to the encyclopedia
- v) The kids played in the park until the sun went down

QUESTION-6

Idioms

- i) Castles in the air: She has the habit to build castles in the air in her free time
- ii) Crocodile tears: She started shedding crocodile tears when she was asked about her homework

iii) Bite off more than one can chew:

He is a greedy man, he often bite off more than he can chew

iv) Jump on the bandwagon:

she regreted her decision to jump on the bandwagon.

v) skeleton in the closet:

She was too skinny that everyone called her skeleton in the closet.

(B)

Rewrite the Passage Direct / Indirect

Answer:

Heer asked Ranjha that where he have been and told him that she missed him so much.

Ranjha said to Heer that he had to travel but his heart never left her and asked her how she have been.

Heer said that she was lonely without him and asked him to tell her about his journey.

Ranjha said that it was a quest for self discovery and he wandered through valleys and crossed rivers but his thoughts were always with her

Heer asked ~~to~~ him that what did he learned on his journey.

Ranjha said that he learned the value of struggle and the strength it gives.

Heer said she have been counting the days until his return.

Ranjha said that he have been counting the moments until he could succeed in his final trial

Heer advised to not (d'ew) dwell on the time apart and said that they are together now and thats all that matters

Ranjha told that his exams are near and he have to leave but his success will conquer distance and time

QUESTION - 7

Translation

All the degrees are going to be useless in the next three years. The speed of technology and the desire to be get benefited from it is so fast that our previous information and information means along with our curriculum and subjects are getting irrelevant when every sort of information is available on a palm size phone screen then skills get dominant over knowledge and practicality gets surpassed over imagination. Now the fear that arise is how the storytellers will be able to unite its audience over literature in the coming days. and how the teacher will be able to explain the phenomena of universe in a small room to the internet oriented students?

QUESTION - 3

Comprehension

Q1: Why is Hiroo considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty?

Hiroo was considered as a symbol of strength and loyalty because he faithfully followed the orders given to him by his nation for almost 30 years without even knowing that the war has ended many years before. His resilience and loyalty is what made him a symbol of strength and loyalty.

Q2: In what location was Onoda sent with orders during world war II, and what were his specific instructions?

Onoda was sent to Lubang Island in Philippines during world war II with the specific instruction to disrupt the enemy operations and ^{to be} get involved in guerrilla warfare.

Q3: Why did Onoda and his unit remain isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945?

Onoda and his unit remain isolated and unaware of Japan's surrender in 1945 because when war turned against Japan then Onoda and his unit lost communication from his nation. Efforts were made by their nation to inform them about the end of war but Onoda and his unit perceive that as enemy tricks.

Q4: What efforts were made over the years to contact and inform Onoda and his men about the end of the war, and why were these attempts unsuccessful?

Over the years many attempts were made by to inform Onoda and his men about the war end (tho) such as leaflets were dropped as well as many announcements were made by Philippine government. All these attempts were unsuccessful because they perceive it as a trick of their enemies.

Q5: How did Norio Suzuki become involved in Onoda's story, and what challenges did he face in convincing Onoda to believe that the war had ended?

Norio Suzuki became involved in Onoda's story because he ventured in the jungles (to) with the mission to find Onoda. He faced challenges in convincing Onoda that the war had ended ^{by} ^{convincing him} providing him confirmation from many high-ranking officers

Title: State Institutions: Imperative for Democracy

A state consist of three fundamental institutions of government, that includes judiciary, legislative and executive branch. Judiciary is responsible for interpretation of law and act as safeguard of the rights of the citizens. The legislative branch serves as voice of citizen and is involve in the formation of legislation by the effective contribution of citizens and leaders. Executive branch is responsible for implementing the laws and policies. Coherence among the state institution is the key to the development and the progress of the nation. A responsible leader should led by example by adhering to the principles of state institution. Supremacy of judiciary, rule of law and the culture of accountability is what makes a nation strong, independent and powerful. Respect of state institution is imperative for effective democracy

Precis words : 129

Total words : 381

